Handbook of Rhetorical Analysis: Studies in Style and Invention, Designed to Accompany the Author's Practical Elements of Rhetoric (1895) 2008-06-01 seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject didactics for the subject english literature works grade sehr gut university of graz institut für anglistik course linguistics proseminar textlinguistics language english abstract the analysis focuses on the written script of loving your enemies by martin luther king and examines the validity of the personal hypothesis that rhetorical devices have a significant influence on cohesion and coherence in king s speech and that the latter textual notions cohesion and coherence can lead to an emotional and positive response by the audience due to the great length of loving your enemies the paper includes some charts to support a more compact and focused analysis

The Influence of Rhetorical Strategies and Devices on Cohesion and Coherence in Loving Your Enemies 2013-07-22 by studying the diction of romeo and juliet robert o evans examines this the most rhetorical of shakespeare s plays in terms of an aristotelian critical category which has been neglected in modern times inherent in his methodology is the assumption that romeo and juliet is best regarded as drama not as pure poetry though essentially it is the rhetorical brilliance of the poetry that is considered evans begins with an analysis of the important speeches of romeo and juliet and defines the controlling devices shakespeare wove into them especially oxymoron he then follows with a discussion of the role of friar laurence whom the author finds is a catalyst between the warring houses and between the lovers and the outer world of verona evans concludes with an examination of mercutio s famous queen mab speech which he points out has an integral relationship to the structure of the tragedy as a whole an analysis of the rhetorical devices of the play evans believes demonstrates the thesis that the tragic effect of romeo and juliet is one of fulfillment with the tragedy arising from the character of the protagonists rather than from circumstance

The Osier Cage 2021-11-21 seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject didactics for the subject english literature works grade 1 7 johannes gutenberg university mainz course proseminar language english abstract theodore dreiser published his first novel sister carrie in 1900 his most famous work an american tragedy was printed in 1925 reading criticism on theodore dreiser s novels one can get the impression that dreiser s style is atrocious and chaotic it is questionable whether he ever wrote a single sentence capable of giving pleasure to itself qtd in allen 81 stoll quotes critics that maintain that theodore dreiser was never able to obtain a technique of narrative writing they argue that his writings are poor or that he writes without structure and that his style influences his novels quality in a bad way cf stoll 4 12 dreiser s writing inevitably suffered from his poor taste inadequate attention to the niceties of diction and an ear insufficiently attuned to style and tone gtd in flanagan 289 however these critics are not completely true the following paper will show that dreiser s writing is not entirely bad and that his diction was not completely arbitrary therefore the novels sister carrie and an american tragedy will be analyzed with respect to imagery symbolism and some rhetorical devices Imagery, Symbolism, and Rhetorical Devices in "Sister Carrie" and "An American Tragedy" by Theodore ????????? 2007-01-25 the chapters are organized around the poetic devices including kakekotoba makurakotoba joshi and utamakura the analysis uses a new kind of descriptive model which defines and classifies these rhetorical devices as structural elements in the poetry Rhetorical Devices of the Kokinshū 1997 this study offers a neo aristotelian and visual rhetoric analysis of two purposively selected volumes of the people s liberation army of namibia plan s revolutionary magazine the combatant the aim of the study was to examine how the magazine employed rhetoric devices in its advocacy for exposing the evil tactics of the apartheid regime in namibia the study thus investigated how the magazine employed the three canons of rhetoric invention arrangement and style as well as visual patterns to convey its intended communicative and rhetorical potential moreover the study sought to find out the extent at which the combatant incorporated other rhetoric al devices in its quest to function as a tool that exposes colonialism couched within the theoretical foundations of neo aristotelian rhetorical theory and visual rhetorical analysis the study examined the rhetorical and communicative potentials of the magazine in the context of the namibian liberations war the study adopted a qualitative research approach which was explorative in nature and also utilising content analysis in analysing the collected data which was purposively sampled the major findings of the study revealed that the magazine integrated invention arrangement and style in assembling the magazine which confirms that the combatant was an intentional and intelligent rhetorician the findings of the study further revealed that the combatant used visual images as means of persuasion and poems were incorporated as rhetorical devices the study concludes that the faculty of rhetoric is of utmost importance in political discourse and it is a skill every politian must possess in order to persuade and impose ideologies on an intended audience

A Neo-aristotelian and Visual Rhetorical Analysis of SWAPO's People's Liberation Army of Namibia's the Combatant 2022 laura wilder fills a gap in the scholarship on writing in the disciplines and writing across the curriculum with this thorough study of the intersections between scholarly literary criticism and undergraduate writing in introductory literature courses rhetorical strategies and genre conventions in literary studies is the first examination of rhetorical practice in the research and teaching of literary study and a detailed assessment of the ethics and efficacy of explicit instruction in the rhetorical strategies and genre conventions of the discipline using rhetorical analysis ethnographic observation and individual interviews wilder demonstrates how rhetorical conventions play a central although largely tacit role in the teaching of literature and the evaluation of student writing wilder follows a group of literature majors and details their experiences some students received experimental explicit instruction in the special topoi while others received more traditional implicit instruction arquing explicit instruction in disciplinary conventions has the potential to help underprepared students wilder explores how this kind of instruction may be incorporated into literature courses without being overly reductive taking into consideration student perspectives wilder makes a bold case for expanding the focus of research in writing in the disciplines and writing across the curriculum in order to grasp the full complexity of disciplinary discourse

Rhetorical Strategies and Genre Conventions in Literary Studies 2012-05-31 seminar paper from the year 2008 in the subject american studies literature grade 1 7 rwth aachen university course american non fiction language english abstract the eighty five essays today commonly referred to as the federalist papers were written in 1787 and 1788 in order to help in securing the ratification of the proposed united states constitution in the state of new york although the essays were all signed publius they were written by three men of different background and to some extent different political ideas john jay alexander hamilton and james madison have contributed to the papers in different quantity due to an illness jay has contributed only five articles hamilton s and madison s contributions are not always easy to separate but most scholars ascribe twenty nine articles to madison and fifty one to hamilton the authorship of essays 18 20 49 58 and 62 63 was the subject of heated historical controversy for more than a century and a half because both hamilton and madison allegedly claimed authorship of these essays the object of this paper is to analyze the rhetorical approach of madison and hamilton in selected papers also an attempt will be made to determine if and to what extent their rhetorical style and political ideas are distinguishable even under the joint guise of publius the analysis will be undertaken on the examples of four selected papers no 10 54 84 and 85 which were chosen as representatives of the respective author s style since a detailed analysis of all 85 papers would be to extensive for a term paper contributions by john jay are deliberately left out since they consist of only 5 papers which are arguably among the less important ones federalist no 10 was chosen as the most famous of madison s contributions due to its prominence within the scholarly debate and the prevailing significance of the problem discussed in the essay the dangers or factions within a republic system no 54 was chosen as an example of disputed authorship and due to its treatment of the complex problem of slavery in regard to the number of representatives of southern states a special interest lies in the author s approach to distinguish the slaves status of being people and property at the same time no 84 was chosen due to hamilton s interesting rhetorical treatment of and political stance on the bill of rights no 85 was chosen because of its importance as a conclusion to the complete work and arguments of the whole body of texts

The Rhetorical Approach in the Federalist Papers No.10, No.54, No.84 and 2009-04-24 this book demonstrates how the author of the song of songs employed certain literary devices for a specific rhetorical purpose to convey certain therological truths these are the author s use of first person personal pronouns rhetorical questions and the various characters that inhabit its pages The Rhetorical Role of Scripture in 1 Corinthians 2005 making sense of messages now in its second edition retains the apprenticeship approach which facilitates effectively learning the complex content and skills of rhetorical theory and criticism a new chapter on the rhetoric of ignorance provides needed theory and examples that help students deal with the new rhetorical landscape marked by such discursive complexities as fake news whataboutism and denial of science that creates rather than reduces uncertainty in public argument a new chapter curating and analyzing multimodal mediated rhetoric deals with problems of media criticism in the digital age it provides theory models of application and commentary that help novice critics understand and mindfully practice criticism that leads to insight not mere opinion throughout the book extended and updated examples and commentaries are designed to promote novice to expert agency in students this textbook is ideal for introductory courses in contemporary rhetoric rhetorical criticism and critical analysis of mass media

Contributions of Selected Rhetorical Devices to a Biblical Theology of The Song of Songs 2011-03-07 galatians is a polemical letter which contains a substantial amount of argumentative passages paul evidently wanted to persuade by using the best arguments possible to convince his addressees using a state of the art method from the discipline of argumentation analysis paul s argumentation can be analysed with a precision that standard exegetical methods cannot provide the pragma dialectical method developed in amsterdam facilitates an analysis which is both descriptive and normative on the one hand paul s argumentation can be described such as the relationship between premisses and conclusions the structure of the arguments and features relating to rhetorical strategy on the other hand the method makes it possible to evaluate paul s argumentation against a set of rules for sound reasoning fallacies and problematic arguments can be described accurately the spiritual nature of paul s matters do not relieve him of rationality and paul himself does not argue as if it did paul s argumentation is found problematic in several respects there is a tension in the text paul works a great deal to argue his claims while at the same time giving the impression that he merely wants to declare his standpoints and does not want to carry out an argumentation at all many of the conclusions are presented as self evident even when they are not paul s style is far from an ideal model of the resolution of a dispute paul relies heavily on an argumentative strategy with maximal use of rhetorical devices the analysis shows that a contemporary method of argumentation analysis provides tools necessary to adequately describe and understand both individual arguments and the overarching strategy of the argumentation in a pauline text Making Sense of Messages 2019-11-13 comprising some 4000 terms defined and illustrated gradus calls upon the resources of linquistics poetics semiotics socio criticism rhetoric pragmatics combining them in ways which enable readers quickly to comprehend the codes and conventions which together make up literarity Paul's Argumentation in Galatians 2007-07-26 educational policy is often dismissed as simply rhetoric and a collection of half truths however this is to underestimate the power of rhetoric and the ways in which rhetorical strategies are integral to persuasive acts through a series of illustrative chapters this book argues that rather than something to be dismissed rhetorical analysis offers a rich and deep arena in which to explore and examine educational issues and practices it adopts an original stance in relation to contemporary debates and will make a significant contribution to educational debates in elucidating and illustrating the pervasiveness of persuasive strategies in educational practices rhetoric and educational discourse is a useful resource for postgraduate and research students in education and applied linguistics the book will also be of interest to academics and researchers in these fields of study and those interested in discursive approaches to research and scholarship

A Dictionary of Literary Devices 1991-01-01 cicero s accretive style is a book about the nature of the ciceronian exordium and its rhetorical structure and function through a sentence by sentence stylistic analysis of the exordia of a selection of cicero s judicial speeches this book explores how cicero uses a variety of rhetorical strategies to fulfill the aims of the exordium as he himself defined them the speeches selected for study include the pro quinctio pro roscio amerino and pro rege deiotaro and cover the span of cicero s career the focus of the analysis is on cicero s accretive style not a rhetorical device in the formal sense but a conscious stylistic effort whose effect is rhetorical because cicero also wrote important treatises on oratory and rhetoric this book measures how closely cicero followed his own guidelines laid down for the exordium and how and under what circumstances he deviated or departed from them

Rhetoric and Educational Discourse 2013-02-01 in today s multicultural and multireligious societies humour and comedy often become the focus of controversy over alleged racist or offensive content as shown for instance by the intense debate of sacha baron cohen's characters ali g and borat and the prophet muhammad cartoons published in the danish newspaper jyllands posten despite these intense debates commentary on humour in the academy lacks a clear way of connecting the serious and the humorous and a clear way of accounting for the serious impact of comic language the absence of a developed serious vocabulary with which to judge the humorous tends to encourage polarized debates which fail to account for the paradoxes of humour this book draws on the social theory of zygmunt baumann to examine the linguistic structure of humour arguing that as a form of language similar to metaphor it is both unstable and unpredictable and structurally prone to act rhetorically that is to be convincing deconstructing the dominant form of racism aimed at black people in the us and that aimed at asians in the uk the rhetoric of racist humour shows how racist humour expresses and supports racial stereotypes in the us and uk while also exploring the forms of resistance presented by the humour of black and asian comedians to such stereotypes an engaging exploration of modern late modern and fluid or postmodern forms of humour this book will be of interest to sociologists and scholars of cultural and media studies as well as those working in the fields of race and ethnicity humour and cultural theory

Cicero's Accretive Style 1996 literary data is supposed to reflect real life situations and is at the same time written in a style of writing that is considered as highly elevated such reasons have prompted the contributors to this book to deal with this type of data such attempts range from semantics to stylistics and pragmatics this book introduces linguistic analyses of literary data from different points of view this involves dealing with various linguistic topics and different types of literary data hence many models are presented to analyze the linguistic aspects of those topics in the light of the genre in which those topics are undertaken accordingly different results are yielded from those analyses and this makes each type of analysis distinct from the other ones it is hoped that this work will be a useful source to all those whether theoretically practically or both interested in linguistics pragmatics of literature applied linguistics and literary stylistics

A Contrastive Analysis of Rhetorical Patterns in English and Spanish Expository Journal Writing 2012-10-03 this book explores the structure and use of academic and professional discourse through the lens of corpus linguistics the goal of this book is to show how insights from corpus linguistic analyses can help us better understand how we use academic and professional language and help us find ways to better train newcomers to the genres used in various professional contexts the contributions to this book show that specialized corpora of specific genres from a variety of fields allow us to make more relevant observations about the function and use of language for particular purposes the specialized corpora examined include written and spoken academic genres written and spoken business and legal genres and written philanthropic genres the book showcases a variety of approaches to analyzing the discourse of specialized corpora and each chapter concludes with a reflection on the practical and pedagogical implications of the analysis

Half a Century of Forest Industry Rhetoric 2009 cartoons as a form of humour and entertainment are a social product which are revealing of different social and political practices that prevail in a society humourised and satirised by the cartoonist this book advances research on cartoons and humour in the saudi context it contributes to the growing multimodal research on non interactional humour in the media that benefits from traditional theories of verbal humour the study analyses the interaction between visual and verbal modes highlighting the multimodal manifestations of the rhetorical devices frequently employed to create humour in english language cartoons collected from the saudi media the multimodal analysis shows that the frequent rhetorical devices such as allusions parody metaphor metonymy juxtaposition and exaggeration take a form which is woven between the visual and verbal modes and which makes the production of humorous and satirical effect more unique and interesting the analysis of the cartoons across various thematic categories further offers a window into contemporary saudi society The Microanalysis of Political Communication 2003-12-08 seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject rhetoric elocution oratory grade 1 3 the university of north carolina at chapel hill course allgemeine rhetorik language english abstract abraham lincoln s gettysburg address has played a powerful role in shaping american public discourse over the centuries it has become one of the central documents in the evolution of american civil religion imbued with religious and biblical language and imagery backed by the ethos of its orator its rhetoric sanctifies the founding documents and itself becomes part of the canon of holy writ of american civil religion this is all the more remarkable considering the fact that lincoln was originally only supposed to deliver a few appropriate remarks at the dedication of the gettysburg battlefield as a cemetery for the fallen soldiers the main speaker edward everett had already given a long speech when lincoln s turn came the situation which thus presented itself to the orator posed a considerable challenge as the audience was already weary it is therefore all the more fascinating to see how lincoln succeeded in his short dense speech which did not even give the photographer sufficient time to take his picture in molding american identity by fusing organic union with transcendent purpose by utilizing the religious symbolism of the christian tradition white 97 this paper will examine how the gettysburg address came to be one of the central documents of american civil religion which had a significant influence on all future public discourse first it will provide a brief discussion of abraham lincoln as an orator this aspect is important insofar as it is necessary to determine what role his personal ethos played in the gettysburg address the main part will offer a close reading of the gettysburg address focusing on an in depth analysis of the rhetorical strategies and stylistic devices lincoln employs this part is concerned especially with the question of how these strategies contribute to the enduring significance of the gettysburg address as a central document of american civil religion
