will wane or disappear but when you truly believe in what Jesus Christ did on the cross of Calvary God's divine love will redeem you and set you free from the heavy load of sin. God is love; it's the most basic definition of God in scriptures but so profound that it's often misunderstood. In this probing book, a brilliant Bible expositor brings us into the very heart of God by answering such questions as: if God is love, how could he send anyone to hell? What's the difference between the loving God of the New Testament and the angry God of the Old Testament? If God is love, why did he require his son to die such a cruel death on the cross? How can God be both loving and jealous? The author argues against the two polar views of God as a sentimental grandfather whose doting love could not bring him to punishment of the disobedient, and God as an angry tyrant who would rule by threats. Both extremes paint a distorted picture of God and further confuse the issue of understanding God's love. Dr. MacArthur writes he insists that what God loves is actually defined by what he hates, and that neither his love nor his wrath can be understood in isolation from the other. Although the author is clearly aware of the way great men have grappled with these issues in the history of the church, his doctrinal presentations arise more from the biblical text than from dogmatic theology. He examines in detail the way John the Apostle of Love treats love in his first epistle, then fleshes out the doctrine of God's love in vivid representations of real people interacting with divine love. This well-loved writer effectively uses his personal mistakes to illustrate riveting truths about repentance and forgiveness. As he focuses on the true authority of God, he is careful to explain by example the important difference between submission and obedience. The MacArthur Study Guide Series provides a twelve-week verse-by-verse examination of the books of the New Testament. This revised and updated series continues to be one of the best-selling study guides currently available for individuals or small groups.

What is the Kingdom of God? Why is the Kingdom of Heaven such good news for us, and how do we live the Kingdom lifestyle? How did Jesus intend us to seek first the Kingdom of God? This collection of thirty-eight short devotional Bible studies contemplates those questions and explores our life with Jesus the King. It examines the miracles and message of Jesus about the Kingdom, including the Beatitudes, the Sermon on the Mount, and parables like the Parable of the Sower (also called the Parable of the Soils or Seed) and the Mustard Seed. The book can be used as a devotional and for group Bible study in a small group or book club. It will help the reader to grow in spiritual maturity by obeying and living the life that Jesus taught and demonstrated because obedience is God's love language. Living it doesn't depend on our determination or gifting. In the Kingdom business, the King guides us and supplies everything we need to do his will. The central thesis of the Christlike God is that Jesus is the reflection in human life of the being of God. John Taylor begins by pointing out how few religious people or non-religious people ever stop and think about God but tend to live with an unconscious stereotype. He discusses throughout the text how we acquire our idea of God, the nature of revelation, experience, and the range of reflection on God both within and out with the Christian tradition. Bishop John Taylor was one of the twentieth century's leading Anglican missionary statesmen, an ecumenist, Africanist, and theologian of international repute. He served as a general secretary of the Church Missionary Society at a crucial stage in its development and later became Bishop of Windsor. God who said "let light shine out of darkness" has shone.

in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of god in the face of jesus christ 2 corinthians 4 6 this book is a cry from the heart of john piper he is pleading that god himself as revealed in christ s death and resurrection is the ultimate and greatest gift of the gospel none of christ s gospel deeds and none of our gospel blessings are good news except as means of seeing and savoring the glory of christ forgiveness is good news because it opens the way to the enjoyment of god himself justification is good news because it wins access to the presence and pleasures of god himself eternal life is good news because it becomes the everlasting enjoyment of christ all god s gifts are loving only to the degree that they lead us to god himself that is what god s love is his commitment to do everything necessary most painfully the death of his only son to enthrall us with what is most deeply and durably satisfying namely himself saturated with scripture centered on the cross and seriously joyful this book leads us to satisfaction for the deep hungers of the soul it touches us at the root of life where practical transformation gets its daily power it awakens our longing for christ and opens our eyes to his beauty piper writes for the soul thirsty who have turned away empty and in desperation from the mirage of methodology he invites us to slow down and drink from a deeper spring this is eternal life jesus said that they know you the only true god and jesus christ whom you have sent this is what makes the gospel and this book good news the gospel of john declares its purpose clearly these are written that you may believe that jesus is the christ the son of god and that by believing you may have life in his name thus it fulfills a dual function encouraging believers and providing them with evidences for proclaiming that jesus is god s messiah the divine incarnate son of god christians today as in the first century can draw strength and courage from john s telling of the story of jesus a telling that consistently reflects not only the words and deeds of jesus but their inner significance we are called to worship as we find the father son and spirit revealed in the gospel and as in jesus we discover god s light life and love we learn to respond in faith humility and obedience throughout whitacre explains what the gospel meant to its original hearers and its application for us today a twenty one day prayerful journey through the twenty one chapters of the gospel of john each day the reader is invited to journey with jesus through a particular section of scripture to listen to his words to reflect on specific questions and to respond in whatever way the spirit leads ideal for small groups who want to journey together further into the heart of god this is the extended and annotated edition including an extensive biographical annotation about the author and his life an interactive table of contents perfect formatting for electronic reading devices this book contains the 88 homilies that chrysostom gave on the gospel of st john in the distance a figure just barely a speck on the horizon slowly approaches his boyhood home he hasn t been there in years and is nervous about showing his face years ago he wished his father would drop dead took his share of an inheritance and lived a shameful life with all the wealth squandered his desperate poverty has driven him back to his father s house at the same time an elderly man distinguished and handsomely dressed sees a far off silhouette could it be he thinks to himself not daring to let his hopes up refusing to believe his son would ever come home but what is a vague repressed hope becomes the undeniable truth that his long lost son draws near he runs recklessly to meet him grace for you taken from dr john macarthur s best selling book a tale of two sons explains the hidden dynamics of jesus most well known parable the parable of the prodigal son it gives you a brief but powerful look into the homecoming of the son the unthinkable response of the father and the often overlooked truth about the older brother who spurns his return in these pages you will rediscover the depths of god s redemption grasp the significance behind jesus life and ministry in this commentary on the first half of the gospel of john and come to know the living savior like never before reproduction of the original in this study of john 1 12 the author develops the thesis that jesus is the divine incarnate torah and that jesus as torah is the conceptual center of the fourth gospel an overarching goal of the treatise is to explore the evangelist s portrait of jesus as the fulfillment of the mosaic law connected with this aim is the central thesis that the messiah appears in the gospel of john as the realization of all the law s redemptive historical types prophecies and expectations a corresponding major claim is that those who trust in jesus for eternal life and heed his teaching satisfy fully the requirements of the moral law recorded in scripture an examination of john 1 12 substantiates the truth that jesus is the perfection of the gift of the tanakh he existed in the beginning with the father and spirit as god the eternal torah is light and life fulfillment and joy in fellowship with the triune god for all eternity the divine tanakh by becoming incarnate revealed the glory of the father and made the fullness of god s grace and truth available to humankind the living word not only provides salvation but in so doing unveils the loving and redeeming heart of the father for all to see the son of god is the one to whom all the old testament luminaries such as abraham jacob mooses and isaiah pointed and in whom their eschatological hopes were realized the anointed one is greater than and supreme over all the religious institutions once associated with the jerusalem tabernacle and temple even such jewish festivals as the feast of tabernacles pentecost dedication and passover find their fulfillment in the messiah this volume is appropriate for personal study and is also suitable as a college and seminary text

John 1-10 2021-07-29 the book was born out of a desire to lift your spirit as we look around us today we see a lot of pain and sorrow and misery the concept of the nature of god s divine redemption is a deliberate intention to encourage you and to lift your hope to put your mind on something better and a superior way the book tells you if the son of man set you free you are free indeed john 8 36 king james bible that is what is the nature of god s redemption is about we are told that whatsoever a man thinks in his heart so is he the idea behind the book is to help you to think good thoughts and to lift your minds from horizontal things to vertical things god s love is the most amazing thing the book tells that faith is also amazing it takes far more faith to believe in the intellectually chic and fashionable evolutionary myth than it does to believe in the existence of god moreover it says evolution is based entirely on faith because no facts or proof have ever been found to support it faith does play a primary role in the life of a christian for the person who truly wants to seek god and learn to please him hebrews 11 6 tells us that but without faith it is impossible to please god for him that cometh to god must believe that he is and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him faith is vital to a christian in fact without it no one can please god notice this verse says that those seeking god must believe that he is also the book articulates that a deep belief in god who rewards all who diligently seek him requires proof of his existence it says it is after proof has been established then and only then can one have faith absolute confidence that what man does is being recorded in god s mind to be remembered when he receives his reward if you are uncertain that god exists because proof of that existence has not been firmly established then under fire your faith will wane or disappear but when you truly believe in what jesus christ did on the cross of calvary god s divine love will redeem you and set you free from the heavy load of sin

The Satisfied Soul 2017-09-05 god is love it s the most basic definition of god in scriptures but so profound that it s often misunderstood in this probing book a brilliant bible expositor brings us into the very heart of god by answering such questions as if god is love how could he send anyone to hell what s the difference between the loving god of the new testament and the angry god of the old testament if god is love why did he require his son to die such a cruel death on the cross how can god be both loving and jealous the author argues against the two polar views of god as a sentimental grandfather whose doting love could not bring him to punishment of the disobedient and god as an angry tyrant who would rule by threats both extremes paint a distorted picture of god and further confuse the issue of understanding god s love dr macarthur writes he insists that what god loves is actually defined by what he hates and that neither his love nor his wrath can be understood in isolation from the other although the author is clearly aware of the way great men have grappled with these issues in the history of the church his doctrinal presentations arise more from the biblical text than from dogmatic theology he examines in detail the way john the apostle of love treats love in his first epistle then fleshes out the doctrine of god s love in vivid representations of real people interacting with divine love

Daring Faith 2016-06-14 this well loved writer effectively uses his personal mistakes to illustrate riveting truths about repentance and forgiveness as he focuses on the true authority of god he is careful to explain by example the important difference between submission and obedience

The Foolishness of God 2001 grasp the significance behind jesus life and ministry in this commentary on the first half of the gospel of john and come to know the living savior like never before

Under Cover 2006-06 reproduction of the original

John 1864 in this study of john 1-12 the author develops the thesis that jesus is the divine incarnate torah and that jesus as torah is the conceptual center of the fourth gospel an overarching goal of the treatise is to explore the evangelist's portrait of jesus as the fulfillment of the mosaic law connected with this aim is the central thesis that the messiah appears in the gospel of john as the realization of all the law's redemptive historical types prophecies and expectations a corresponding major claim is that those who trust in jesus for eternal life and heed his teaching satisfy fully the requirements of the moral law recorded in scripture an examination of john 1-12 substantiates the truth that jesus is the perfection of the gift of the tanakh he existed in the beginning with the father and spirit as god the eternal torah is light and life fulfillment and joy in fellowship with the triune god for all eternity the divine tanakh by becoming incarnate revealed the glory of the father and made the fullness of god's grace and truth available to humankind the living word not only provides salvation but in so doing unveils the loving and redeeming heart of the father for all to see the son of god is the one to whom all the old testament luminaries such as abraham jacob moose and isaiah pointed and in whom their eschatological hopes were realized the anointed one is greater than and supreme over all the religious institutions once associated with the jerusalem tabernacle and temple even such jewish festivals as the feast of tabernacles pentecost dedication and passover find their fulfillment in the messiah this volume is appropriate for personal study and is also suitable as a college and seminary text
