outline of the operations of the british troops in scinde and affghanistan is a detailed account of british military operations in the first anglo afghan war 1839 42 and of the invasion in 1839 by the british east india company of the province of sind in present day pakistan the author george buist 1804 60 was editor of the bombay times and the book is heavily drawn from dispatches that appeared in that newspaper and in another indian publication the monthly times buist was born in scotland and educated at saint andrews university and the university of edinburgh in addition to his newspaper work he was an accomplished amateur scientist who collected scientific data in various fields and served as secretary to the geographical society of bombay and the agri horticultural society of western india buist was highly critical of british policy both in this book and in the editorial line taken by the bombay times he writes that the anglo afghan war began as a war of aggression turned into struggle for our own defence and was transformed finally into a war of vengeance he opposed the policy of retaliation against the afghans after the kabul massacres of 1842 and argued that the war was both ruinously expensive and inimical to british interests the british objective in starting the war was to drive the ruler of afghanistan dost mohammad khan from power and to replace him with shah shuja who was thought to be more favorable to british interests and less susceptible to russian pressure or blandishment about this view buist writes the more the matter is examined the more difficult it is to discover by what process of self delusion it was that the projectors or advocates of the dooranee durrani alliance could for a moment persuade themselves that the restoration and maintenance of the shah shoojah shuja' on the throne could conduce to any one of the ends we professed ourselves anxious to attain wealth without work pleasure without conscience science without humanity knowledge without character politics without principle commerce without morality worship without sacrifice vidjambov.blogspot.com 2023 01 book inventory vladimir djambov talmach.html responsibilities of flocks accordingly to such a spirit and such care the shepherds and flocks should not be motionless in the matter of salvation but betraying themselves to the formation of shepherds as ready made material they themselves should in every way rush to
