Innocents 1999 cathy coote is the most exciting young talent of 1999 innocents is destined to be the most talked about book of 1999 my darling all of this is my fault i can't get your face out of my mind there were no mitigating circumstances there were no excuses i wasn't young and malleable and suffering from an overdose of hanibal the cannibal i wasn't a victim of child sexual abuse i didn't grow up in a civil war zone my uncle didn't beat me i don't even have the excuse of neglect she is a schoolgirl with a secret obsession he is her high school teacher when she decides to seduce him his world turns upside down i wanted you at that moment when i understood how desperately you wanted me i wanted you when i saw how you dreaded to touch me when i saw you violently pinching the skin of your own wrist i do i made the easy declaration seem difficult pretending to fumble for words that were readily available care about you big eyes again this was the moment biting my lip making my face tentative i asked out of the blue will you kiss me she moves in with him he has no choice but to resign from the school he takes an undemanding job outside the school system and the two of them retreat into their own private world he is delirious with delight and fear she works to keep his interest at fever pitch there can be no room for anyone or anything else in his life as their relationship deepens she plays ever more elaborate games to get him to reveal his darkest innermost desires then the tables turn precocious disturbing and morally complex innocents is a coolly told portrait of manipulation and desire

Forthcoming Books 2002 for millions of people around the world tibet is a domain of undisturbed tradition the dalai lama a spiritual guide by contrast the tibet museum opened in lhasa by the chinese in 1999 was designed to reclassify tibetan objects as cultural relics and the dalai lama as obsolete suggesting that both these views are suspect clare e harris argues in the museum on the roof of the world that for the past one hundred and fifty years british and chinese collectors and curators have tried to convert tibet itself into a museum an image some tibetans have begun to contest this book is a powerful account of the museums created by for or on behalf of tibetans and the nationalist agendas that have played out in them harris begins with the british public's first encounter with tibetan culture in 1854 she then examines the role of imperial collectors and photographers in representations of the region and visits competing museums of tibet in india and lhasa drawing on fieldwork in tibetan communities she also documents the activities of contemporary tibetan artists as they try to displace the utopian visions of their country prevalent in the west as well as the negative assessments of their heritage common in china illustrated with many previously unpublished images this book addresses the pressing question of who has the right to represent tibet in museums and beyond
