The Misadventures of a Reluctant Traveller 2012-12 drawing on one of the earliest literary travel accounts known to man travel writer rolf potts and illustrator cedar van tassel recreate the comic tale of wenamun an ancient egyptian priest whose overseas voyage in search of lebanese timber resulted in an ongoing series of fiascos based on a source papyrus that was lost to history until the late 19th century the protagonist s misadventure is delightfully entertaining and has a confessional self deprecating feel that makes it stand out from other ancient narratives unlike the characters in more mythic tales of adventure wenamun is not on a hero s journey he is in his hapless progression of mistakes and misdirections an anti hero of sorts as clueless and arrogant as any culturally oblivious tourist

The Misadventures of Wenamun 2015-09-01 the novel constitutes a fitting summation of the themes that occupied tammsaare throughout his writing the search for truth and social justice and the struggle against corruption and greed it combines a satire on the inequalities of rural life and absurdly rigid social attitudes with biblical themes mythology and bawdy folklore
