readily accessible information on the black business experience the encyclopedia provides an overview of black business activities and underscores the existence of a historic tradition of black american business participation entries range from biographies of black business people to overview surveys of business activities from the 1600s to the 1990s including slave and free black business activities and the black wallstreet to coverage of black women s business activities and discussions of such african american specific industries as catering funeral enterprises insurance and hair care and cosmetic products also there are entries on blacks in the automotive parts industry black investment banks black companies listed on the stock market blacks and corporate america civil rights and black business and black athletes and business activities earlier theses on the history of childhood can now be laid to rest and a fundamental paradigm shift initiated as there is an overwhelming body of evidence to show that in medieval and early modern times too there were close emotional relations between parents and children the contributors to this volume demonstrate conclusively on the one hand how intensively parents concerned themselves with their children in the pre modern era and on the other which social political and religious conditions shaped these relationships these studies in emotional history demonstrate how easy it is for a subjective choice of sources coupled with faulty interpretations caused mainly by modern prejudices toward the middle ages in particular to lead to the view that in the past children were regarded as small adults the contributors demonstrate convincingly that intense feelings admittedly often different in nature shaped the relationship between adults and children are you able to laugh in the face of trials temptations and challenges soft tender hearted moments is written in erma bombeck style humor touching on universal female experiences like weight gain dieting fears childbirth motherhood parenting sex post menopause etc through humor soft tender hearted moments delves into the human heart and spirit it will move you to laughter and maybe even to tears even though soft tender hearted moments is a humor book it also contains some jewels of truth that the author has learned along lifes journey designed for anyone who wants to develop the skill of telling stories this volume provides advice on choosing learning and presenting stories as well as discussions on the importance of storytelling through human history and its continued significance today contains primary source material first published in 1999 routledge is an imprint of taylor francis an informa company the accelerated pace of european integration since the early 1990s has been accompanied by the emergence of increasingly prominent and multiform oppositions to the process the term euroscepticism has appeared with growing frequency in a range of political media and academic discourses yet the label is applied to a wide range of different and occasionally contradictory phenomena although originally associated with an english exceptionalism relative to a continental project of political and economic integration the term euroscepticism is now also identified with a more general questioning of european union institutions and policies which finds diverse expressions across the entire continent this volume of european studies brings together an interdisciplinary team of contributors to provide one of the first major multinational surveys of the growth of these eurosceptic tendencies individual chapters provide detailed examinations of developments in france germany the netherlands the united kingdom ireland sweden austria the czech republic poland and switzerland overall the volume draws a distinctive portrait of contemporary euroscepticism situating the phenomenon not only relative to the progress of european integration but also in relation to broader questions concerned with the evolution of party politics and the reshaping of national identities the early history of american settlement pioneering and independence is marked by fascinating characters and events often shrouded in legend filmmakers have sought to capture these characters as diverse as daniel boone francis marion and pocahontas and events as disparate as the lost colony the boston tea party and the french and indian war this comprehensive filmography provides production information and commentary on all films and television episodes set during the years between the first settlements in the future united states and the fledgling country s war of 1812 with britain films are arranged alphabetically and a detailed introduction provides a thorough disease disability and trauma illustrates how stories about ill health and suffering have been produced and received from a variety of perspectives bringing together the work of canadian researchers health professionals and people with lived experiences of disease disability or trauma it addresses central issues about authority in medical and personal narratives and the value of cross or interdisciplinary research in understanding such experiences the book considers the aesthetic dimensions of health related stories with literary readings that look at how personal accounts of disease disability and trauma are crafted by writers and filmmakers into published works topics range from psychiatric hospitalization and aestheticizing cancer to father daughter incest in film the collection also deals with the therapeutic or transformative effect of stories with essays about men sport and spinal cord injury narrative teaching at 1 arche a faith based network of communities inclusive of people with developmental disabilities and the construction of a schizophrenic identity a final section examines the polemical functions of narrative directing attention to the professional and political contexts within which stories are constructed and exchanged topics include ableist limits on self narration drug addiction and the disease model and narratives of trauma and aboriginal post secondary students unfitting stories is essential reading for researchers using narrative methods or materials for teachers students and professionals working in the field of health
