annual statutory requirements from the 23rd to 26th of november 2009 in la palma island in the canaries the comparative education society in europe cese organized an international symposium entitled pisa under examination changing knowledge changing tests and changing schools during four days seventeen leading scholars of europe and america presented their contributions to debate the different problematiques of the remarkable phenomenon represented by the oecd programme for international student assessment or pisa pisa is not merely an educational event it is also a media circus which involves the public rehearsal for reasons for failure or success and even in some cases public and political and academic explanations about why failure was not really that and why success was not really that either at the centre of all these indications we find the growing influence of international agencies on education and schooling which is decisively contributing to a marketisation of the field of education in the context of an increasingly multilevel and fragmented arena for educational governance based on the formulation the regulation and the transnational coordination and convergence of policies buttressed at the same time by the diffusion of persuasive discursive practice organized in four sections entitled the comparative challenges of the ocde pisa programme pisa and school knowledge the assessment of pisa school effectiveness and the socio cultural dimension pisa and the immigrant student question and extreme visions of pisa germany and finland the contributions of this book offers a comprehensive approach of all these challenging and significant issues written from different and distinct research and academic traditions secondary school examinations facts and commentary presents the importance and development of the secondary school examinations this book explains the pass fail concept of the general certificate education g c e wherein the candidates would be classified as either passing or failing with no sub divisions within these two categories organized into eight chapters this book begins with an overview of the underlying principles of the g c e examination for teachers students and parents this text then examines the development of schools council for curriculum and examinations which signaled a fresh approach by the central authority to the problem of comparing standards by means of calibration tests other chapters consider the method of appointing small sub committees to work on a syllabus whereby the subject advisory panels take care to guarantee a preponderance of teachers not forgetting to ensure that boys as well as girls schools are represented this book is a valuable resource for teachers students and parents outlining the controversies that have surrounded the academic discipline of english literature since its institutionalization in the late nineteenth century this important book draws on a range of archival sources it addresses issues that are central to the identity of academic english how the subject came into existence and what makes it a specialist practice this book analyzes the performance of south asian educational systems and identifies the causes and correlates of student learning outcomes drawing on successful initiatives both in the region and elsewhere in the world it offers an insightful approach to setting priorities for enhancing the quality of school education in south asia it is seventeen years since i first formulated the paradox of the chinese learner in a conference in kathmandu nepal my original formulation of the paradox was that westerners saw chinese students as rote learning massive amounts of information in fierce exam dominated classrooms yet in international comparisons students in the confucian heritage classrooms greatly outperformed western students learning in progressive western classrooms this seeming paradox raised all sorts of questions to which many others have contributed important answers especially that by ference marton on how chinese learners construed the roles of memory and understanding in ways that were foreign to typical western educators much of this work was brought together in the chinese learner 1996 edited by david watkins and myself that work raised more questions still especially about educational contexts beliefs and practices which were investigated in contributions to teaching the chinese learner 2001 and now we have revisiting the chinese learner which is a very timely collection of excellent contributions that take into account the many changes that have taken place since 2001 changes such as 1 the globalisation of education especially through educational technology and enormous socio economic changes especially in china itself 2 changes in educational policy aims curriculum and organization and decentralisation of educational decision making in many confucian heritage cultures 3 second international conference on chemical engineering education presents the situation in chemical engineering education in germany hungary spain japan and in the united states this book depicts an awareness of the problems of professional education together with a wide spectrum of opinions on their solution organized into 39 chapters this book begins with an overview of the actual situation of chemical engineering education program in spain this text then examines the detailed formalities of chemical engineering in secondary schools other chapters consider the change in chemical engineering education in japan due to the change of chemical industries as well as by a great change of students attitude this book discusses as well the curriculum proposal for the education of undergraduate and graduate levels as well as foreign students education the final chapter reviews the european situation of chemical engineering education system this book is a valuable resource for teachers and students of chemical engineering much of the material included here owes its inspiration to discussions held with groups of student teachers in the early 1970s the book is written for such students and discusses issues such as the acquisition of knowledge the value of examinations dependency and religion in education the book is intended as a thought
