this collection is the first to focus exclusively on twenty first century young adult gothic fiction the essays demonstrate how the contemporary resurgence of the gothic signals anxieties about and hopes for young people in the twenty first century changing conceptions of young adults as liminal figures operating between the modes of child and adult can be mobilised when combined with gothic spaces and concepts in texts for young people in young adult gothic literature the crossing of boundaries typical of the gothic is often motivated by a heterosexual romance plot in which the human or monstrous female protagonist desires a boy who is not her type additionally as the gothic works to define what it means to be human particularly in relation to gender race and identity the volume also examines how contemporary shifts and flashpoints in identity politics are being negotiated under the metaphoric cloak of monstrosity
