The Poetry of the Brownings 1947

robert browning and elizabeth barrett browning are without parallel in the nineteenth century celebrated poets they became equally famous for their marriage still popular more than a century after their deaths their poetry vividly reflects the unique nature of their relationship this collection presents the brownings work in the context of their lives the early years and their initial friendship their courtship and marriage the fifteen happy years they spent living in italy until elizabeth s death whether in short poems such as elizabeth s hector in the garden and robert s natural magic or in extracts from longer works such as aurora leigh and pauline the great themes they shared are all represented love marriage illicit passion england and italy childhood religion poetry and nature elizabeth s famous sonnets from the portuguese based on their love affair is included in its entirety the poems are augmented with a generous selection of the marvelous letters the brownings wrote to each other

Browning: Poems 2012-07-18

these selections from the poetry of robert browning have been made with special reference to the tastes and capacities of readers of the high school age every poem included has been found by experience to be within the grasp of boys and girls most of browning s best poetry is within the ken of any reader of imagination and diligence to the reader who lacks these not only browning but the great world of literature remains closed browning is not the only poet who requires close study the difficulties he offers are in his best poems not more repellent to the thoughtful reader than the nut that protects and contains the kernel to a boy or girl of active mind the difficulty need rarely be more than a pleasant challenge to the exercise of a little patience and ingenuity browning when at his best in vigor clearness and beauty is peculiarly a poet for young people his freedom from sentimentality his liveliness of conception and narration his high optimism and his interest in the things that make for the life of the soul appeal to the imagination and the feelings of youth the present edition attempts but little in the way of criticism the notes cover such matters as are not readily settled by an appeal to the dictionary and suggest in addition questions that are designed to help in interpretation and appreciation

Browning's Shorter Poems 2022-09-15

first published in 2003 this book examines the creative partnership of elizabeth barrett and robert browning and provides a critical analysis of the poems written by this famous couple during the 16 year period of their friendship courtship and marriage even quite early in their relationship the brownings shared a frame of reference similar themes narrative structures and details of phrasing resonate in their works and suggest dialogue rather than merely mutual influence pollock traces parallels between the brownings lives and works even before they met and then throughout their courtship and married life suggesting that their creative dialogue continued after barrett browning died in 1861 as her presence and themes continued to inform browning s poetry for at least a decade afterward the face of robert browning gives nothing away handsome and polished it offers no hold to those who would pry into the soul behind its metallic mirror gives us back ourselves but the face of elizabeth barret browning speaks openly of her sufferings of ill health of an iron father of miscarriages yet speaking in the accents of courage and good sense any woman of sensitivity and talent can imagine herself as elizabeth in the hope that she might get as much as did elizabeth out of a life which sometimes seemed to offer so little no man can imagine himself as robert and if that is because genius is a mystery it is even more because robert browning is a mystery p 1
