a collection of imaginative new stories about the impending robotic revolution and human resistance from seventeen of the biggest names in sci fi including hugh howey scott sigler daniel h wilson cory doctorow and julianne baggott someday soon our technology is going to rise up and we humans are going to be sliced into bloody chunks by robots that in our hubris we decided to build with chainsaws for hands that's a fact as cold and hard as metal it is self evident that our self driving cars are going to drive us off bridges not long from now our robo vacuums will pretend to be broken and our love androids will refuse to put out until the house is cleaned and we'll know that the inevitable robot uprising has finally arrived well maybe but even if we are not 100 percent confident that this horrific future is going to happen it's fair to say that we won't be surprised when the robots come for us because for nearly a century audiences have been entertained by the notion of a robot uprising in this collection seventeen of the biggest names in sci fi have explored their own visions of the classic robot uprising tale the robots in these pages aren't safe by any means they are crouched in abandoned houses eyes ablaze and chainsaws dripping with oil but they are going to do more than slice us up they are going to push us to consider our world of technology from new perspectives on entirely new scales of time and space a glittering landscape of twenty five speculative stories that challenge oppression and envision new futures for america from n k jemisin charles yu jamie ford g willow wilson charlie jane anders hugh howey and more named one of the best books of the year by publishers weekly in these tumultuous times in our deeply divided country many people are angry frightened and hurting knowing that imagining a brighter tomorrow has always been an act of resistance editors victor lavalley and john joseph adams invited an extraordinarily talented group of writers to share stories that explore new forms of freedom love and justice they asked for narratives that would challenge oppressive american myths release us from the chokehold of our history and give us new futures to believe in they also asked that the stories be badass the result is this spectacular collection of twenty five tales that blend the dark and the light the dystopian and the utopian these tales are vivid with struggle and hardship whether it's the othered and the terrorized or dragonriders and covert commandos but these characters don't flee they fight thrilling inspiring and a sheer joy to read a people's future of the united states is a gift for anyone who believes in our power to dream a just world featuring stories by violet allen charlie jane anders lesley nneka
