Smith and E. Batty 2023-04-28 in tide of yore and in time long gone before there was a king of the kings of the banu sásán in the islands of india and china a lord of armies and guards and servants and dependents so he succeeded to the empire when he ruled the land and forded it over his lieges with justice so exemplary that he was beloved by all the peoples of his capital and of his kingdom the book of the thousand nights and a night is a collection of middle eastern west asian and south asian stories and folk tales compiled in arabic during the islamic golden age it is often known in english as the arabian nights the stories proceed from an original tale of ruler shahryār and his wife scheherazade where some stories are framed within other stories while others begin and end of their own accord this edition contains more than 1001 tales of romance erotica supernatural and adventure along with copious notes transport you into the land of magic and nostalgia

Cocaine Politics 1947 this is a regimental history with a difference one that is bound up with the history of the british empire in africa and the extension and development of british rule in the territories of somaliland british east africa redesignated kenya from july 1920 uganda nyasaland and after 1918 tanganyika previously german east africa these were the territories that were the recruiting grounds for the kar to which officers from the british army were seconded there were no permanent commissions in the kar unlike the indian army which had its own officer structure no regiment has ever been more intimately connected with the territory through which it marched and fought or with the peoples from which it was recruited it was a unique regiment the author has arranged the book in five parts the campaigns of the early regiments the consolidation of the regiment 1901 1914 the east africa campaign 1914 1918 internal security and reorganization 1914 1939 and the war of 1939 1945 the story begins with the political background to the british administration in east and central africa up to the close of the nineteenth century during the last decade of that century three regiments were formed which were the forerunners of the k a r the central african regiment the uganda rifles and the east african rifles these saw action in various expeditions and campaigns in mauritius somaliland the ashanti war the gambia expedition expeditions against the nandi and others on 1 january 1902 the king s african rifles came into being incorporating the original regiments as battalions six battalions 1st and 2nd central africa 3rd east africa 4th and 5th uganda and 6th somaliland battalions the total strength was returned as 4 683 officers and men including 104 british officers for the new regiment the main operations before wwi were the campaigns against the mad mullah of somaliland involving four expeditions he wasn t finally seen off until 1920 during the great war there were 21 battalions and at peak strength in july 1918 the k a r numbered 1 193 officers 1 497 british ncos and 30 658 africans casualties amounted to 5 117 with a further 3 039 died of disease the regiment s part in the campaign against von lettow vorbeck in east africa is fully described the regiment was again in action during wwii taking part in three separate campaigns the defeat of the italians in somalia and abyssinia the occupation of madagascar against the opposition of the vichy french and the reconquest of burma when for the first time k a r battalions fought outside the continent of africa this must be one of the best regimental histories ever written
