Laura Lippman has 140 books on Goodreads with 703282 ratings. Laura Lippman's most popular book is Lady in the Lake. Laura Lippman, when Hector Lewis told his daughter that she had a "nothing face," it was just another bit of tossed-off cruelty from a man who specialized in harsh words and harsher deeds. But twenty years later, Heloise considers it a blessing to be a person who knows how to avoid attention. Since Laura Lippman's debut, she has been recognized as a distinctive voice in mystery fiction and named one of the essential crime writers of the last 100 years. Stephen King called her special, even extraordinary, and Gillian Flynn wrote she is simply a brilliant novelist. Since the publication of her first novel in 1997, Laura Lippman has won virtually every major award given to U.S. crime writings, including the Edgar Award, Anthony Award, Agatha Award, Nero Wolfe Award, Shamus Award, and the Quill Award. She is a New York Times bestseller. Laura Lippman, born January 31, 1959, is an American journalist and author of over 20 detective fiction novels. Her novels have won multiple awards, including an Agatha Award, seven Anthony Awards, two Barry Awards, an Edgar Award, a Gumshoe Award, a Macavity Award, a Nero Award, two Shamus Awards, and two Strand Critics Awards. Lippman walks a fine line, balancing a cracking good mystery with the story of a not-always-admirable woman working to stand on her own. Laura Lippman, bestselling award-winning author of the most dangerous thing now available, one of the best novelists around, Period (Washington Post), Lippman has enriched literature as a whole. Chicago Sun Times, perennial New York Times and nationally bestselling author and acclaimed multiple prize winner, Laura Lippman delivers a brilliant novel about a woman with a secret life who is forced to make desperate choices to save her son and herself. Complete order of Laura Lippman books in publication order and chronological order: the revered New York Times bestselling author returns with a novel set in 1960s Baltimore that combines modern psychological insights with elements of classic noir about a middle-aged housewife turned aspiring reporter who pursues the murder of a forgotten young woman. In Laura Lippman's new novel, a woman running a suburban prostitution ring learns that the father of her son, a violent pimp, may soon be released from prison.
