entity or its representatives individuals and groups often attempt to shape public policy through education advocacy or mobilisation of interest groups shaping public policy is obviously different in western style democracies than in other forms of government but it is reasonable to assume that the process always involves efforts by competing interest groups to influence policy makers in their favour a major aspect of public policy is law in a general sense the law includes specific legislation and more broadly defined provisions of constitutional or international law there are many ways that the law can influence how survivors of violence against women are treated and the types of services they receive this handbook offers a comprehensive examination of crimes as public policy subjects to provide an authoritative overview of current knowledge about the nature scale and effects of diverse forms of criminal behaviour and of efforts to prevent and control them the clear eyed definitive history of the modern american economy and the decline of the american dream from the pulitzer prize winning columnist behind the new york times s the morning newsletter two decades into the twenty first century the stagnation of living standards has become the defining trend of american life life expectancy has declined economic inequality has soared and after some progress the black white wage gap is once again as large as it was in the 1950s how did this happen in the world s most powerful country and what happened to the american dream the promise of a happier healthier more prosperous future which was once such an inextricable part of our national identity drawing on decades of writing about the economy for the new york times pulitzer prize winning writer david leonhardt examines the past century of american history from the great depression to today s great stagnation in search of an answer to make sense of the rise and subsequent fall of the american dream leonhardt tells the story of the modern american economy as an ongoing battle between two competing forms of capitalism one that envisions prosperity for most and one that serves the individual and favors the wealthy in vivid prose ours was the shining future traces how democratic capitalism flourished to make the american dream possible until the latter decades of the twentieth century when bit by bit the dream was corrupted to serve only the privileged few ours was the shining future is a sweeping narrative full of innovation and grit human drama and hope featuring the trailblazing figures who helped shape the american dream frances perkins paul hoffman cesar chavez robert kennedy a philip randolph grace hopper and more this engaging history reveals the power of grassroots democratic movements from across the political spectrum and though the american dream feels lost to us now leonhardt shows how americans if they commit themselves to transforming the economy as they did in the past have the power to revive the dream once more biology textbooks and books on the history of science generally give a limited picture of the roles women have played in the growth and development of the related to the concepts covered in the book together with links to a dedicated textbook facebook page fully updated to reflect recent developments in the field and extensively illustrated this authoritative text written by a leading criminologist and experienced lecturer is essential reading for all students of criminology and related fields the contributions in this proceedings volume offer a new perspective on the mathematical ties between france and italy and reveal how mathematical developments in these two countries affected one another the focus is above all on the peninsula s influence on french mathematicians counterbalancing the historically predominant perception that french mathematics was a model for italian mathematicians in the process the book details a subtle network of relations between the two countries where mathematical exchanges fit into the changing and evolving framework of italian political and academic structures it reconsiders the issue of nationalities in all of its complexity an aspect often neglected in research on the history of mathematics the works in this volume are selected contributions from a conference held in lille and lens france in november 2013 on images of italian mathematics in france from risorgimento to fascism the authors include respected historians of mathematics philosophers of science historians and specialists for italy and intellectual relations ensuring the book will be of great interest to their peers the aim of this series is to inform both professional philosophers and a larger readership of social and natural scientists methodologists mathematicians students teachers publishers etc about what is going on who s who and who does what in contemporary philosophy and logic profiles is designed to present the research activity and the results of already outstanding personalities and schools and of newly emerging ones in the various fields of philosophy and logic there are many festschrift volumes dedicated to various philosophers there is the celebrated library of living philosophers edited by p a schilpp whose format influenced the present enterprise still they can only cover very little of the contemporary philosophical scene faced with a tremendous expansion of philosophical information and with an almost frightening division of labor and increasing specialization we need systematic and regular ways of keeping track of what happens in the profession profiles is intended to perform such a function each volume is devoted to one or several philosophers whose views and results are presented and discussed the profiled philosopher s will summarize and review his their own work in the main fields of significant contribution this work will be discussed and evaluated by invited contributors relevant historical and or biographical data an up to date bibliography with short abstracts of the most important works and whenever possible references to significant reviews and discussions will also be included covering all the major areas of the subject this introduction to criminology features specific topics such as the history and theory of criminology and categories of crime this festschrift celebrates teddy seidenfeld and his seminal contributions to philosophy statistics probability game theory and related areas the 13 contributions in this volume written by leading researchers in these fields are supplemented by an interview with teddy seidenfeld that offers an abbreviated intellectual autobiography touching on topics of timeless interest concerning truth and uncertainty indeed as the eminent philosopher isaac levi writes in this volume in a world dominated by alternative facts and fake news it is hard to believe that many of us have spent our life s work as has teddy seidenfeld in discussing truth and uncertainty the reader is invited to share this celebration of teddy seidenfeld s work uncovering truths about uncertainty and the penetrating insights they offer to our common pursuit of truth in the face of uncertainty the common law tradition examines the lives and achievements of five individuals who helped broaden the perspectives of the legal academy edward h levi harry kalven jr karl llewellyn philip kurland and kenneth culp davis and assesses the extent to which their immediate agendas were realized what distinguished these men is that their work was practical and rooted in the law and hence yielded concrete applications the groups diversity the tolerant atmosphere in which they taught and wrote and the attachment of its individual members to empirical approaches differentiate them from today s legal scholars and make their ideas of continuing importance this volume remembers géza xeravits a well known scholar of deuterocanonical and qumran literature the volume is divided into four sections according to his scholarly work and interest contributions in the first part deal with old testament and related issues thomas hiecke stefan beyerle and mattew goff the second section is about the dead sea scrolls john j

collins john kampen peter porzig eibert tighelaar balázs tamási and réka esztári the largest part is the forth on deuterocanonical beate ego lucas brum teixeira fancis macatangay tobias nicklas maria brutti nuria chalduch benages panc beentjes ben wright otto mulder angelo passaro friedrich reiterer severino bussino jeremy corley and jiseong kwong the third section deals with some cognate literature józsef zseggellér and karin schöpflin the last section about the ancient synagogue has the paper of anders kloostergaard petersen some hot topics are discussed for example the two spirits in qumran the categorization of the dead sea scrolls the authorship and anthropology of ben sira and the angelology of vitae prophetarum one of today's most pressing issues in criminology and crime prevention is the problem of crime in our cities and towns and its prevention the topic of crime prevention in the urban community was discussed at the 47th international course of the international society for criminology isc held at chuo university tokyo it was the very first time such an isc meeting was held in asia and this meant that finally a relatively large number of japanese and other asian participants were able to express their views on criminal policy and crime prevention in urban centres all over the world crime in urban communities is not an exclusively western phenomenon but it is also a considerable problem in other parts of the world this makes an interchange of ideas between western eastern and third world criminologists particularly important general characteristics of the urban communities that suffer from a high crime rate are ethnic and racial tensions a mix of old housing areas and new business districts a prevailing sense of anonymity slums and juvenile delinquency the existence of these general characteristics besides mutual differences makes cooperation in the crime prevention sphere definitely worth the effort there have been serious debates between historians novelists and filmmakers as to how best present historical narratives when writers and filmmakers talk of using historical research with integrity what exactly do they mean integrity and historical research examines this question in detail the first chapter discusses the concept of integrity the chapters that follow reflect on this philosophical treatment in the light of fiction and film that deals with history in a number of ways how should writers and filmmakers use lives can and may people who are now dead and who may have lived long ago be defamed the authors include academics historians social historians medievalists oral historians literary theorists historical novelists and script writers they examine the theoretical influences and practical choices that involve and concern writers and filmmakers who rely on historical research the desire to be accurate may often conflict with the need to produce a work that goes beyond the mere depiction of events in order to excite the interest of readers and to hold that interest at the same time there is a developing emphasis on historians to write well in clear accessible prose which may involve using the novelists techniques how much license may be given to writers of fiction and filmmakers in their depiction of historical characters and events this book begins to answer this question while inviting further discussion this book explains the growing empowerment of the colombian constitutional court in the early years of the 21st century and develops the concept of the deliberative judge taking the case of the colombian constitutional court and drawing on neoinstitutional theory to explain the relationship between political crisis and institutional reforms the book challenges the notion of rational choice institutionalism that agents act strategically it indicates the limits of path dependence and argues instead that discursive institutionalism is the most appropriate method for analyzing processes of institutional learning combining theoretical and empirical research it builds the argument that judicial independence promotes the case for deliberative democracy over rational choice or strategic action approaches finally the book suggests that by introducing communicative and cognitive variables in our understanding of key actors and processes we are more capable of bridging institutional origin and legacy the work will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and policy makers in constitutional law constitutional politics and constitutional history seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject business economics business management corporate governance language english abstract in 1995 women's jeans were a 2 billion fashion category in the us and growing fast levi strauss was the market leader but its traditional dominant position was under heavy attack standard levi's women's jeans sold in 51 size combinations waist and inseam had been the industry leading product for decades but fashion was now taking over the category market research showed that only

24 percent of women were fully satisfied with their purchase of standard jeans at about 50 per pair fashion in jeans meant more styles more colors and better fit all of these combined to create a level of product line complexity that was a nightmare for manufacturing oriented push based companies like Strauss by 1995 Strauss operated 19 original Levi's retail stores across the country 2 000 to 3 000 square foot mall stores to put them in closer touch with the ultimate customers however this channel was a very small part of their overall 6 billion sales which were still primarily to distributors and independent retailers shows Levi's financial footprint Strauss was as aggressive as most apparel manufacturers and retailers in investing in process improvements and information technology to improve manufacturing and delivery cycle times and pull based responsiveness to actual buying patterns however the overall supply chain from product design to retail sales was still complex expensive and slow in spite of substantial improvements in recent years including extensive use of EDI there was still an eight month lag on average between ordering cotton fabric and selling the final pair of jeans the industry average lag was still well over twelve months in 1995 the financial footprint for one pair of women's jeans sold through the normal wholesale channel compared to one pair sold through an original Levi's this handbook provides the first in depth analysis of non violent extremism across different ideologies and geographic centres a topic overshadowed until now by the political and academic focus on violent and jihadi extremism in the global north whilst acknowledging the potentiality of non violent extremism as a precursor to terrorism this handbook argues that non violent extremism ought to be considered a stand alone area of study focusing on Islamist Buddhist Hindu far right far left environmentalist and feminist manifestations the handbook discusses the ideological foundation of their war on ideas against the prevailing socio political and cultural systems in which they operate and provides an empirical examination of their main claims and perspectives this is supplemented by a truly global overview of non violent extremist groups not only in Europe and the United States but also in Africa Asia Oceania and the Middle East the handbook thus answers a call to decolonise knowledge that is especially prescient given both the complicity of non violent extremists with authoritarian states and the dynamic of oppression towards more progressive groups in the global south the handbook will appeal to those studying extremism radicalisation and terrorism it intersects several relevant disciplines including social movement studies political science criminology Islamic studies and anthropology

Images of Italian Mathematics in France 2016-10-13 one of today's most pressing issues in criminology and crime prevention is the problem of crime in our cities and towns and its prevention the topic of crime prevention in the urban community was discussed at the 47th international course of the international society for criminology isc held at chuo university tokyo it was the very first time such an isc meeting was held in asia and this meant that finally a relatively large number of japanese and other asian participants were able to express their views on criminal policy and crime prevention in urban centres all over the world crime in urban communities is not an exclusively western phenomenon but it is also a considerable problem in other parts of the world this makes an interchange of ideas between western eastern and third world criminologists particularly important general characteristics of the urban communities that suffer from a high crime rate are ethnic and racial tensions a mix of old housing areas and new business districts a prevailing sense of anonymity slums and juvenile delinquency the existence of these general characteristics besides mutual differences makes cooperation in the crime prevention sphere definitely worth the effort

Henry E. Kyburg, Jr. & Isaac Levi 2012-12-06 there have been serious debates between historians novelists and filmmakers as to how best present historical narratives when writers and filmmakers talk of using historical research with integrity what exactly do they mean integrity and historical research examines this question in detail the first chapter discusses the concept of integrity the chapters that follow reflect on this philosophical treatment in the light of fiction and film that deals with history in a number of ways how should writers and filmmakers use lives can and may people who are now dead and who may have lived long ago be defamed the authors include academics historians social historians medievalists oral historians literary theorists historical novelists and script writers they examine the theoretical influences and practical choices that involve and concern writers and filmmakers who rely on historical research the desire to be accurate may often conflict with the need to produce a work that goes beyond the mere depiction of events in order to excite the interest of readers and to hold that interest at the same time there is a developing emphasis on historians to write well in clear accessible prose which may involve using the novelists techniques how much license may be given to writers of fiction and filmmakers in their depiction of historical characters and events this book begins to answer this question while inviting further discussion

Criminology 2004 this book explains the growing empowerment of the colombian constitutional court in the early years of the 21st century and develops the concept of the deliberative judge taking the case of the colombian constitutional court and drawing on neoinstitutional theory to explain the relationship between political crisis and institutional reforms the book challenges the notion of rational choice institutionalism that agents act strategically it indicates the limits of path dependence and argues instead that discursive institutionalism is the most appropriate method for analyzing processes of institutional learning combining theoretical and empirical research it builds the argument that judicial independence promotes the case for deliberative democracy over rational choice or strategic action approaches finally the book suggests that by introducing communicative and cognitive variables in our understanding of key actors and processes we are more capable of bridging institutional origin and legacy the work will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and policy makers in constitutional law constitutional politics and constitutional history

Reflections on the Foundations of Probability and Statistics 2023-01-14 seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject business economics business management corporate governance language english abstract in 1995 women s jeans were a 2 billion fashion category in the us and growing fast levi strauss was the market leader but its traditional dominant position was under heavy attack standard levi s women s jeans sold in 51 size combinations waist and inseam had been the industry leading product for decades but fashion was now taking over the category market research showed that only 24 percent of women were fully satisfied with their purchase of standard jeans at about 50 per pair fashion in jeans meant more styles more colors and better fit all of these combined to create a level of product line complexity that was a nightmare for manufacturing oriented push based companies like strauss by 1995 strauss operated 19 original levi s retail stores across the country 2 000 to 3 000 square foot mall stores to put them in closer touch with the ultimate customers however this channel was a very small part of their overall 6 billion sales which were still primarily to distributors and or independent retailers shows levi s financial footprint strauss was as aggressive as most apparel manufacturers and retailers in investing in process improvements and information technology to improve manufacturing and delivery cycle times and pull based responsiveness to actual buying patterns however the overall supply chain from product design to retail sales was still complex expensive and slow in spite of substantial improvements in recent years including extensive use of edi there was still an eight month lag on average between ordering cotton fabric and selling the final pair of jeans the industry average lag was still well over twelve months in 1995 the financial footprint for one pair of women s jeans sold through the normal wholesale channel compared to one pair sold through an original levi s

The Common Law Tradition 2001 this handbook provides the first in depth analysis of non violent extremism across different ideologies and geographic centres a topic overshadowed until now by the political and academic focus on violent and jihadi extremism in the global north whilst acknowledging the potentiality of non violent extremism as a precursor to terrorism this handbook argues that non violent extremism ought to be considered a stand alone area of study focusing on islamist buddhist hindu far right far left environmentalist and feminist manifestations the handbook discusses the ideological foundation of their war on ideas against the prevailing socio political and cultural systems in which they operate and provides an empirical examination of their main claims and perspectives this is supplemented by a truly global overview of non violent extremist groups not only in europe and the united states but also in africa asia oceania and the middle east the handbook thus answers a call to decolonise knowledge that is especially prescient given both the complicity of non violent extremists with authoritarian states and the dynamic of oppression towards more progressive groups in the global south the handbook will appeal to those studying extremism radicalisation and terrorism it intersects several relevant disciplines including social movement studies political science criminology islamic studies and anthropology
