classical methods of bread baking with modern conveniences so an artisanal theology relies upon the personal and communal touch of human relationship amidst the contemporary forms of programmatic theological education an artisanal theology offers an articulate and traditionally rooted faith perspective grounded in covenantal companionships sustained in contexts of church tradition and most importantly practice ultimately an artisanal theology witnesses beyond the anticipated political divides to the triune god among us known in a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others the purpose of the letter to the ephesians is unknown the book suggests that the purpose of ephesians is about missions and being missional the author of ephesians committed the task of missions to the church the author located the mission of the church in the redemptive plan of god the redemptive plan oikonomia of god consists of historical epochs of missions the mission of israel the mission of christ the mission of the disciples the mission of the apostles and the mission of the church the term missional has been used ambiguously the existence of a distinction between the mission of the church and missional church is demonstrated and both expressions of mission are grounded in the biblical text of ephesians the mission of the church is grounded in an exposition of eph 1 3 and the missional church is grounded in an exposition of eph 4 6 the author of the letter intended for the mission to the nations to be continued by the church this is the mission of the church he intended for the members of the church to continue to reach out to their local community this is expressed by the missional church the mission of the church has been grounded in the great commission the missional church is grounded in the values morals and lifestyle principles set out in eph 4 6 the church in ancient society provides a full and enjoyable narrative history of the first six centuries of the christian church ancient greek and roman society had many gods and an addiction to astrology and divination this introduction to the period traces the process by which christianity changed this and so provided a foundation for the modern world the teaching of jesus created a lasting community which grew to command the allegiance of the roman emperor christianity is discussed in relation to how it appeared to both jews and pagans and how its christian doctrine and practice were shaped in relation to graeco roman culture and the jewish matrix among the major figures discussed are tertullian clement of alexandria origen constantine julian the apostate basil ambrose and augustine following a chronological approach henry chadwick s clear exposition of important texts and theological debates in their historical context is unrivalled in detail in particular theological and ecclesial texts are examined in relation to the behaviour and beliefs of people who attended churches and synagogues christians did not find agreement and unity easy and the author displays a distinctive concern for the factors theological personal and political which caused division in the church and prevented reconciliation the emperors however began to foster unity for political reasons and to choose monotheism finally the church captured the society in psalms 1 89 you will come to know god as both transcendent and immanent far above and yet personally with us in our pilgrim journey everything you learn about god and his creation will prepare your heart to be worshipful

An Actological Theology 2012-09-01

by the early twenty first century a phenomenon that once was inconceivable had become nearly commonplace in american society the public spiritual teacher who neither belongs to nor is authorized by a major religious tradition from the oprah winfrey endorsed eckhart tolle to figures like gangaji and adhyashanti there are now countless spiritual teachers who claim and teach variants of instant or immediate enlightenment american gurus tells the story of how this phenomenon emerged through an examination of the broader literary and religious context of the subject arthur versluis shows that a characteristic feature of the western esoteric tradition is the claim that every person can achieve spontaneous direct unmediated spiritual insight this claim was articulated with special clarity by the new england transcendentalists bronson alcott and ralph waldo emerson versluis explores transcendentalism walt whitman the beat movement timothy leary and the new age movement to shed light on the emergence of the contemporary american guru this insightful study is the first to show how asian religions and western mysticism converged to produce the phenomenon of spontaneously enlightened

paradox and surprise face those who pursue deeper spiritual practice theological wisdom and even a religious calling into the ministry unbeknownst to incoming students the pursuit of theological education in established institutions today furthers a faith that is recognizable in delight and compassion even as it may just as easily deform it into a moral duty and autonomous professionalism so divisive in today's religious ecology how may those drawn into ministry formation today receive its deep theological treasures and sustain a vibrant faith with a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others artisanal theology explores the paradoxes and surprises that await those walking in the worlds of theological education the local congregation the academy the tradition denomination part handbook part witness it offers guidance for the path of intentional formation within contemporary institutions of theological education whose riches may be mined in a disciplined spiritual stewardship and grounded in radically covenantal companionship just like artisanal bread blends the classical methods of bread baking with modern conveniences so an artisanal theology relies upon the personal and communal touch of human relationship amidst the contemporary forms of programmatic theological education an artisanal theology offers an articulate and traditionally rooted faith perspective grounded in covenantal companionships sustained in contexts of church tradition and most importantly practice ultimately an artisanal theology witnesses beyond the anticipated political divides to the triune god among us known in a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others

Wiersbe Bible Commentary 2 Vol Set 1991

the purpose of the letter to the ephesians is unknown the book suggests that the purpose of ephesians is about missions and being missional the author of ephesians committed the task of missions to the church the author located the mission of the church in the redemptive plan of god the redemptive plan oikonomia of god consists of historical epochs of missions the mission of israel the mission of christ the mission of the disciples the mission of the apostles and the mission of the church the term missional has been used ambiguously the existence of a distinction between the mission of the church and missional church is demonstrated and both expressions of mission are grounded in the biblical text of ephesians the mission of the church is grounded in an exposition of eph 1 3 and the missional church is grounded in an exposition of eph 4 6 the author of the letter intended for the mission to the nations to be continued by the church this is the mission of the church he intended for the members of the church to continue to reach out to their local community this is expressed by the missional church the mission of the church has been grounded in the great commission the missional church is grounded in the values morals and lifestyle principles set out in eph 4 6

the church in ancient society provides a full and enjoyable narrative history of the first six centuries of the christian church ancient greek and roman society had many gods and an addiction to astrology and divination this introduction to the period traces the process by which christianity changed this and so provided a foundation for the modern world the teaching of jesus created a lasting community which grew to command the allegiance of the roman emperor christianity is discussed in relation to how it appeared to both jews and pagans and how its christian doctrine and practice were shaped in relation to graeco roman culture and the jewish matrix among the major figures discussed are tertullian clement of alexandria origen constantine julian the apostate basil ambrose and augustine following a chronological approach henry chadwick s clear exposition of important texts and theological debates in their historical context is unrivalled in detail in particular theological and ecclesial texts are examined in relation to the behaviour and beliefs of people who attended churches and synagogues christians did not find agreement and unity easy and the author displays a distinctive concern for the factors theological personal and political which caused division in the church and prevented reconciliation the emperors however began to foster unity for political reasons and to choose monotheism finally the church captured the society

in psalms 1 89 you will come to know god as both transcendent and immanent far above and yet personally with us in our pilgrim journey everything you learn about god and his creation will prepare your heart to be worshipful
