The Brothers Karamazov – 2008-05

Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoevsky 1821-1881 was a Russian novelist and writer of fiction whose works including Crime and Punishment 1866 and The Brothers Karamazov 1880 have had a profound and lasting effect on intellectual thought and world literature. His literary output explores human psychology in the troubled political, social, and spiritual context of 19th-century Russian society, considered by many as a founder or precursor of 20th-century existentialism. His Notes from Underground 1864, written in the embittered voice of the anonymous underground man, was named by Walter Kaufmann as the best overture for existentialism ever written. His characters fall into a few distinct categories: humble and self-effacing Christians, self-destructive nihilists, and rebellious intellectuals. Also, his characters are driven by ideas rather than by ordinary biological or social imperatives. His other works include Poor Folk 1846, The Village of Stepanchikovo 1859, The Insulted and Humiliated 1861, The House of the Dead 1862, The Gambler 1867, The Idiot 1869, The Possessed 1872, The Raw Youth 1875, and A Writer's Diary 1873.

Dostoyevsky 2008-03

this book illuminates the connectedness of dostoevsky s literary art with his philosophical and psychological brilliance two fyodor dostoevsky conferences originating at the university of north texas set the stage for this volume scholars contributed original papers focusing on how dostoevsky s literary art and philosophical insights enrich one another fyodor dostoevsky wrote and thought polyphonically his polyphonic method is both his special literary technique and his distinctive way of probing theological social and philosophical depths as bakhtin and terras suggest all dostoevsky s major literary inventions from the underground man to the vitriolic grushenka are products of his ability to listen profoundly to his own characters like the genius author redactor of 1 and 2 samuel he reports the heights and depths of human emotion and behavior whether exploring the anatomy of dysfunctional families making the heart soar with zosima s vision of forgiveness or giving ivan karamazov full rein to challenge theism dostoevsky s characters transform themselves into irregular verbs whose fierce independence emerges only because of their desperate and inescapable interdependence his major characters are text subtext and context for each other they play inside each other s head and answer in one way or another
