NPNF1-04. Augustine: The Writings Against the Manichaeans and Against the Donatists 1871 anyone interested in theories of moral or human practice will find in aristotle s nicomachean ethics one of the few basic models relevant through to today at the centre of his analysis both sober and cautious are such concepts as happiness virtue choice prudence incontinence pleasure and friendship aristotle s arguments are by no means of merely historical interest but continue to exert a key influence on present day ethical debate

England and the International Policy of the European Great Powers 1871 - 1914 1884 in mapping the moving image pasi valiaho offers a compelling study of how the medium of film came to shape our experience and thinking of the world and ourselves by locating the moving image in new ways of seeing and saying as manifest in the arts science and philosophy at the turn of the twentieth century the book redefines the cinema as one of the most important anthropological processes of modernity moving beyond the typical understanding of cinema based on optical and linguistic models mapping the moving image takes the notion of rhythm as its cue in conceptualizing the medium s morphogenetic potentialities to generate affectivity behaviour and logics of sense it provides a clear picture of how the forms of early film while mobilizing bodily gestures and demanding intimate affective engagement from the viewer emerged in relation to bio political investments in the body the book also charts from a fresh perspective how the new gestural dynamics and visuality of the moving image fed into our thinking of time memory and the unconscious
