late twentieth century art born in new york and trained in architecture at cornell he went on to question the field s conventions in vivid projects that excised holes into existing buildings or assembled deeds to new york city alleys and curbs as the son of the chilean born surrealist painter roberto matta and anne clark and godson of marcel duchamp with whom he played a regular game of chess in the village matta clark had grown up inside the art world also working as an assistant to mavericks like dennis oppenheim and robert smithson his work and words while sophisticated enough to make him an artist s artist and colossal and outgoing enough to draw public attention and affection were always also grounded in social or political convictions he addressed not only space and real estate in other words housing but the ultimate in necessity and nourishment food his pig roast under the brooklyn bridge offered passersby 500 pork sandwiches and food the artist staffed restaurant that he opened with dancer caroline goodden in soho became a headquarters for that nascent neighborhood in the early 70s he consistently broke the boundaries between sculpture and architecture photography and film performance and installation and above all the permanent and the transitory once in a while he also broke the law this book

our understanding of them as a text or an instance of reflection this stunning volume illuminates the current moment of artists' engagement with books revealing them as an essential medium in contemporary art ever innovative and predictably diverse in their physical formats artists' books occupy a creative space between the familiar four cornered object and challenging works of art that
