this concise introductory study showcases Carey's storytelling talents Carey's success in Australia and elsewhere owes much to his ability to lure his readers into a world at once familiar and fantastic Carey's fictions are products of the dream factories of twentieth century corporate capitalism he debunks the utopian myths of western consumer culture revealing beneath New Age cant the brutal worship of wealth and power the world of which they speak is less exotic than grotesque but it is not for all that irredeemable Huggan argues that Carey's fictions present both a satire on destructive material values and a defence of the right to change to invent new pasts and futures peter carey is one of the most richly awarded and critically acclaimed novelists of the present day most of his fictions relate to questions of australian history and identity rewriting history argues that taken together carey s novels make up a fictional biography of australia the reading proposed here considers both key events in the life of the subject of carey s biography such as the exploration of the interior of the continent the dispossession of the aborigines the convict experience the process of australia s coming of age as a postcolonial country as well as its identity rewriting history demonstrates how carey exposes the lies and deceptions that make up the traditional representations of australian history and supplants them with a new national story one that because of its fictional status is not bound to the rigidities of traditional historical discourse at a time of momentous cultural change when australia is being transformed from a new britannia in another world to a nationnot merely in but actually of the asia pacific region carey s fiction this book argues calls for the construction of a postcolonial national identity that acknowledges the wrongs of the past and gives australians a sense of cultural

the booker prize winning novel now a major motion picture from fox searchlight pictures this sweeping irrepressibly inventive novel is a romance but a romance of the sort that could only take place in nineteenth century australia for only on that sprawling continent a haven for misfits of both the animal and human kingdoms could a nervous anglican minister who gambles on the instructions of the divine become allied with a teenaged heiress who buys a glassworks to help liberate her sex and only the prodigious imagination of peter carey could implicate oscar and lucinda in a narrative of love and commerce religion and colonialism that culminates in a half mad expedition to transport a glass church across the outback
