The South Korean Film Renaissance

2011-07-21

for the past decade the korean film industry has enjoyed a renaissance with innovative storytelling and visceral effects korean films not only have been commercially viable in the domestic and regional markets but also have appealed to cinephiles everywhere on the international festival circuit this book provides both an industrial and an aesthetic account of how the korean film industry managed to turn an economic crisis triggered in part by globalizing processes in the world film industry into a fiscal and cultural boom jinhee choi examines the ways in which korean film production companies backed by affluent corporations and venture capitalists concocted a variety of winning production trends through close analyses of key films choi demonstrates how contemporary korean cinema portrays issues immediate to its own korean audiences while incorporating the transnational aesthetics of hollywood and other national cinemas such as hong kong and japan appendices include data on box office rankings numbers of films produced and released market shares and film festival showings

aku pasti sedang sial shin eun kyu laki laki yang membuatku kehilangan pekerjaan paruh waktu di taman hiburan kini menjadi tetangga baruku dan sewaktu waktu dia bisa saja melaporkanku pada orangtuaku soal kerja yang kulakukan diam diam demi membungkam mulutnya aku pun harus rela menjadi kuli angkutnya membawakan gitarnya dari sekolah hingga ke tempat latihan band nya selama seminggu sekarang aku berjalan di belakangnya menggendong gitar listriknya yang berat sementara dia berjalan riang di depanku sambil menyenandungkan lagu bodoh ciptaannya yang berjudul badut naga saat sampai di tempat latihan rasanya aku ingin menggali tanah dalam dalam dan mengubur diriku laki laki yang bahkan bayangannya pun membuatku trauma ada di sana sepertinya dia dan eun kyu berteman bagaimana ini apa aku pura pura tidak mengenalnya saja atau aku tinggalkan gitar eun kyu dan langsung kabur ah aku pasti benar benar sedang sial mizan nourabooks korea k pop jang geun seuk indonesia

Korea Now

this book problematizes the role of education in an increasingly mediatized world through the lenses of creativity new media and consumerism at the core of the issue the author argues creativity in art education is being co opted to serve the purposes of current economic trends towards designer capitalism using an east meets west approach jagodzinski draws on deleuze and guattarian philosophy to explore visual and popular culture in korean society addressing the tensions that exist between designer education and art that explores the human condition in doing so he challenges art educators to envision a new paradigm for education which questions established media ontologies and incorporates new ways to confront the crisis of the anthropocene

Pedagogical Explorations in a Posthuman Age

2020-07-03

since the 1990s there has been a dramatic increase in cultural flows and connections between the countries in the east asian region nowhere is this more apparent than when looking at popular culture where uneven but multilateral exchanges of japanese korean taiwanese hong kong and chinese products have led to the construction of an east asian popular culture this is both influenced by and in turn influences the national cultures and generates transnational co production and reinvention as east asian popular culture becomes a global force it is increasingly important for us to understand the characteristics of contemporary east asian popular culture and in particular its transnational nature in this handbook the contributors theorize east asian experiences and reconsider western theories on cultural globalization to provide a cutting edge overview of this global phenomenon the routledge handbook of east asian popular culture will be of great interest to students and scholars of a wide range of disciplines including cultural studies media studies communication studies anthropology sociology and asian studies in general
