Advances in Structural Engineering 2014 modern balkan history has traditionally been studied by national historians in terms of separate national histories taking place within bounded state territories the authors in this volume take a different approach they all seek to treat the modern history of the region from a transnational and relational perspective in terms of shared and connected as well as entangled histories transfers and crossings this goes along with an interest in the way ideas institutions and techniques were selected transferred and adapted to balkan conditions and how they interacted with those conditions resulting in mélanges and hybridization the volume also invites reflection on the interacting entities in the very process of their creation and consecutive transformations rather than taking them as givens contributors include diana mishkova alexander vezenkov constantin iordachi roumen daskalov tchavdar marinov blagovest njagulov alone of the great russian novels of the nineteenth century dead souls has remained almost as profound a mystery to critics as it was when it first appeared james woodward disputes the traditional view of gogol s work contending that it is not a sprawling mass of loosely connected episodes details and digressions his close reading of the text offers a new interpretation by tracing the essential features of gogol s creative method although dead souls is a subject of lively debate in almost every respect no western scholar has ever before made it the subject of book length analysis james woodward s inquiry addresses itself to many fundamental questions how is the theme developed what characterizes the writer s creative method does the structure of the novel reveal an inner logic how can the digressive narrative style be reconciled with generally accepted standards of artistic unity and coherence originally published in 1978 the princeton legacy library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of princeton university press these editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions the goal of the princeton legacy library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by princeton university press since its founding in 1905

Gogol's Dead Souls 2016-07-29 bringing a black atlantic approach to constructive postmodern efforts to understand and transcend modern worldviews and modern world orders mothership connections draws upon the work of scholars in the tradition of w e b du bois charles h long alfred north whitehead and charles hartshorne the author shows that connections to the originating influences of transatlantic slavery and black atlantic experiences are essential to any adequate account of modernity and postmodernity he also argues that metaphysics is essential to theology and moral theory synthesizing neoclassical metaphysics and black theology to develop a black atlantic account of metaphysical aspects of struggle power and ethical deliberation

Mothership Connections 2011-09-26 karl barth s famous account of the doctrine of election in his mammoth church dogmatics has been described as the heart of his theology a great hymn to the grace of god in christ he maintained that we must look away from all others and excluding all side glances or secondary thoughts we must look only upon the name of jesus christ god s election is primarily about his self decision or self determination not about his election of individuals
