bachelor thesis from the year 2005 in the subject english language and literature studies literature grade a university of silesia 86 entries in the bibliography language english abstract in my thesis i elaborate on the literary creativity of julian barnes my paper consists of two chapters entitled language as identity and difference and history in time and space the predominating part of each chapter is devoted to the position of individuals competing with meta narratives of language history politics religion and culture the ultimate outcome of the protagonists proceedings is ambivalent in the sense that their efforts are successful only to some extent however at the same time i illustrate that by opposing domination the protagonists manage to undermine the assumed rationale of social discourses and revise the long established hierarchies of western values in the first chapter we have to do with a broad spectrum of ambiguities connected with the usage of language barnes s representation of linguistic reality comprises elements of both structural and poststructural linguistics the author s analysis is based on the writings of many different philosophers and linguists such as wolfgang iser ferdinand de saussure mikhail bakhtin roland barthes jacques derrida and ludwig wittgenstein the subsequent part of the same chapter is devoted to the problem of fragmented narration mainly with respect to flaubert s parrot in the second chapter i elaborate on the status of history in barnes s novels it is focused on the interrelations between history and society as well as history and individuals this sort of research profile leads to posing further questions about the master narratives that encapsulate the image of god and the vision of the whole world in temporal and spatial terms this interpretation is performed with the help of some french philosophers like michel foucault and jean baudrillard the theoretical account of the linguistic and
