both at home and abroad the events of 2002 contrasted significantly with those of the previous year something for which most canadians could be extremely grateful to no ones surprise however the year was dominated by the issues that had captivated the worlds attention at the end of 2001 the attacks on the united states and the subsequent war on terror declared by the bush administration canada had chosen to stand shoulder to shoulder with its southern neighbour in response to those attacks and in 2002 the meaning of that commitment became clear as canada entered into full scale combat operations in afghanistan suffered its first casualties and ended the year torn over whether to follow the united states should it choose to take its war to iraq on the home front a battle of an altogether different magnitude reached a turning point with the seeming resolution of the long running struggle between prime minister jean chrtien and minister of finance paul martin even though by years end it was by no means clear who had actually won similarly a number of the consequences of the 9 11 attacks remained unresolved bill c 17 had not been passed ottawa software engineer maher arar languished in a syrian jail where he had been sent by the united states and the war drums were beating loudly around iraq continuing in the standard for which it has been acclaimed the canadian annual review of politics and public affairs 2002 presents detailed analyses of events that have come to define our nation in recent years
