Asked and Answered: Advice for pre-law and first-year law students 2008

Excerpt from Law in Daily Life, a collection of legal questions connected with the ordinary events of everyday life. In daily life, many legal relations and legal transactions arise which, owing to the insignificance of the object involved in them, hardly ever lead to an action, but which, for all that, may be applied with great utility to purposes of legal education, because they give to beginners the opportunity of contemplating with a legal eye the ordinary occurrences of life. I have collected a great number of cases of this nature and arranged them together from various points of view. The collection first appeared as an appendix to the second edition of my Civilrechts Falle ohne Entscheidungen, published in the year 1870, and then independently, and its value for teaching purposes has been proved by the new editions which have since made their appearance, and by several translations: an Italian by Vito Perugio, a Hungarian by Professor Biermann, a Greek by Dr. Demaras, an abridgement in the Portuguese tongue in de Menezes' Questões Vigentes de Philoepha e do Direito Pernambuco, p. 161 sq. May the little book still further prove its usefulness for legal education. About the publisher: Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Family Law 2018-09 this book was born out of a desire to comprehensively answer the questions that james and mark are asked by coaching clients readers of their books and people they interact with on a daily basis they both noticed that certain questions are repeatedly asked of them albeit in slightly different ways it became apparent to both of them that many other people must be asking these same questions they knew that this presented an opportunity to help on a wider scale writing an ebook to address these inquiries was an obvious solution so they agreed to team up to complete this project sure either of them could have written this book and done a good job of it but they wanted to do something different and to try to offer more value to the reader so instead of writing answers to these faqs together and presenting a united front they decided to answer the questions individually so that you get two distinct points of view neither of them read the other's answers before writing his own in order to avoid being influenced by what the other was writing the authors ask that you read each answer and see what resonates with you mark and james come at things from slightly different angles at times and at other times they are fairly identical in what they write however even when they look at things differently they both also agree with what the other is saying no one is wrong here there are many paths in the law of attraction and it is the goal of this book to provide you with options
