The Journal of Speech and Hearing Disorders 1958 selected as a book of the year by the financial times the gardener and the carpenter should be required reading for anyone who is or is thinking of becoming a parent financial times caring deeply about our children is part of what makes us human yet the thing we call parenting is a surprisingly new invention in the past thirty years the concept of parenting and the huge industry surrounding it have transformed childcare into obsessive controlling and goal orientated labour intended to create a particular kind of child and therefore a particular kind of adult drawing on the study of human evolution and her own cutting edge scientific research into how children learn gopnik shows that although caring for children is profoundly important it is not a matter of shaping them to turn out a particular way children are designed to be messy and unpredictable playful and imaginative and to be very different both from their parents and from each other the variability and flexibility of childhood lets them innovate create and survive in an unpredictable world parenting won t make children learn but caring parents let children learn by creating a secure loving environment in the gardener and the carpenter the pioneering developmental psychologist and philosopher alison gopnik argues that the familiar twenty first century picture of parenting is profoundly wrong it s not just based on bad science it s bad for children and their parents too

American Law from a Catholic Perspective 2015-03-11 in the cowboy state also known as wyoming the wild west has never died the west has long been the favored repository of the east s cultural fantasies and in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries eastern expectations and demands largely shaped wyoming s image in this role becoming western shows how the myth of the american west has acted as a force both in history and in individual lives liza j nicholas interrogates the creation of western lore by looking at five stories that focus on respectively jack flagg a wyoming legend and the supposed model for owen wister s virginian an equestrian statue of buffalo bill sculpted by gertrude vanderbilt whitney the dude ranch the creation of the american studies program at yale and a campaign for the u s senate each story reveals the ways in which the east consciously imagined and manipulated the west and how wyomingites in turn interpreted this identity manipulated it and put it to work for themselves becoming western is a fascinating study of how invented traditions can become potent cultural and political ideology on a local as well as a national level
