American Story 2013-03-26 these are remarkable and poignant stories that need to be told. Ken Burns more than six million people watch Bob Dotson's Emmy award-winning segment American Story on NBC's Today show. For the last four decades Dotson has traveled the country searching out inspiring individuals who quietly perform everyday miracles. In the process he has become the treasured cartographer of America's heart and soul. Today's news is overwhelmingly grim. It's also told by journalists who travel in herds as they trail politicians and camp out at big stories. In American Story Dotson shines a light on America's neglected corners, introducing readers to the ordinary Americans who have learned to fix what really matters.

EBOOK: Boys and Girls in the Primary Classroom 2003-10-16 this book illustrates how gender equity and inequality occurs in primary classrooms. It uses the findings of current research to provide teachers with recommendations for promoting equity amongst boys and girls. Each contributor summarizes recent research in the area of specialization before looking specifically at issues relevant to primary teaching and learning. The areas of the primary school covered include the national curriculum subjects of literacy, numeracy and science and broader topics such as working with boys, children with special educational needs, primary secondary transition, playground cultures and children's construction of gender identities. The book uses classroom based research to provide accessible accounts of investigations into gender and primary schooling. At the same time it offers a critique of the whole drive towards evidence based research. Boys and Girls in the Primary Classroom is aimed particularly at primary teachers and student teachers although the research will be of interest to academics and undergraduate students.

Directors Tell the Story 2016-04-14 move over movies, the freshest storytelling today is on television where the multi-episodic format is used for rich character development and innovative story arcs. Directors Tell the Story, second edition offers rare insight and advice straight from two A-list television directors whose credits include NCIS, NCIS: New Orleans, Nashville, Criminal Minds and many more. Here in one volume learn everything you need to know to become an excellent director, not merely a good one, covering everything through prep, shoot and post. The authors offer practical instruction on how to craft a creative vision, translate a script into a visual story, establish and maintain the look and feel of a television show or film, lead the cast and crew, keep a complex operation running on time and on budget and effectively oversee editing and post production. Directors Tell the Story provides behind-the-scenes access to the secrets of successful directors as well as exercises that use original scripted material. This newly updated edition features all new from the experts sections with insider info known only to working professionals, profiles of top film and TV luminaries with advice and tips, additional 'How I Got My First Job' stories from directors currently in the trenches, useful instruction to help you put directing techniques into practice, a companion website featuring directing tutorials and video interviews with the authors. Bethany Rooney has directed over two hundred episodes of prime-time network shows including NCIS, The Originals, Nashville, NCIS: New Orleans and Criminal Minds. She teaches the Warner Brothers Directing Workshop and serves on numerous committees at the Directors Guild of America. Mary Lou Belli is a two-time Emmy award-winning producer, writer and director as well as the author of two books. She directed NCIS: New Orleans, Monk, Hart of Dixie, The Game, Girlfriends and The Wizards of Waverly Place. She teaches Directing at USC's School of Cinematic Arts.

Cream of the Crop 1996-07-20 English describes the development of a uniquely Canadian selection system that attempted to match the aptitudes of aircrew candidates to the duties they would perform and the evolution of the RCAF's training program from a haphazard system with enormous attrition to one that became the model for many modern systems. He traces the development of aviation psychology and the treatment of psychological casualties of air combat. English pays particular attention to the IMF controversy and the RCAF's response as well as the effect of morale and leadership on the psychological well-being of and casualty rates among Royal Air Force and RCAF bomber squadrons in exploring the human dimension of air warfare an issue that has been widely overlooked in military literature english demonstrates that personnel considerations have at least as much influence on the effectiveness of air forces as material and technological factors
