God in Islamic Theology 2023-05-15 this book gleans classical and contemporary islamic theology on the central tenets of god in islam in directly addressing theological challenges facing islam today it presents a new theological framework and drives prime essential of islamic theology in its attempting to prove the existence oneness and relatability of god

Demystifying Shariah 2020-08-11 a direct counterpoint to fear mongering headlines about shariah law a muslim american legal expert tells the real story eliminating stereotypes and assumptions with compassion irony and humor through scare tactics and deliberate misinformation campaigns anti muslim propagandists insist wrongly that shariah is a draconian and oppressive islamic law that all muslims must abide by they circulate horror stories encouraging americans to fear the takeover of shariah law in america and even mounting anti shariah protests with zero evidence that shariah has taken over any part of our country that s because it hasn t it would be almost funny if it weren t so terrifyingly wrong as puzzling as if americans suddenly began protesting the martian occupation of earth demystifying shariah explains that shariah is not one set of punitive rules or even law the way we think of law rigid and enforceable but religious rules and recommendations that provide muslims with guidance in various aspects of life sumbul ali karamali draws on scholarship and her degree in islamic law to explain shariah in an accessible engaging narrative style its various meanings how it developed and how the shariah based legal system operated for over a thousand years she explains what shariah means not only in the abstract but in the daily lives of muslims she discusses modern calls for shariah what they mean and whether shariah is the law of the land anywhere in the world she also describes the key lies and misunderstandings about shariah circulating in our public discourse and why so many of them are nonsensical this engaging guide is intended to introduce you to the basic principles goals and general development of shariah and to answer questions like how do muslims engage with shariah what does shariah have to do with our constitution what does shariah have to do with the way the world looks like today and why do we all muslims or not need to care

Domestic Extremism and the Case of the Toronto 18 2016-09-30 this book examines domestic extremism and what is popularly referred to as radicalization the fear of domestic extremism has been used to dismantle democracy and erect national security states throughout north america western europe and beyond yet despite the enormous costs citizens have paid in the name of security society has become less secure and less safe in many respects this situation has resulted from the misapprehension of the conditions that make the emergence of this threat probable kowalski focuses on the macro social relations and structures that make radicalization probable as demonstrated through an analysis of the so called toronto 18 an extremist group arrested in june of 2006 for activities that contravened the canadian anti terrorism act at a macro social relations and structures served a significant role in creating the conditions through which the process of radicalization became probable if a comprehensive understanding of the processes of radicalization are to be reached and effective counter terrorism policies developed then the consideration this book provides of greater macro social relations and structures that make the emergence of extremist subjectivities probable is needed

Islam and the Liberal State 2020-11-26 national identity and liberal democracy are recurrent themes in debates about muslim minorities in the west britain is no exception with politicians responding to claims about muslims lack of integration by mandating the promotion of fundamental british values including democracy and individual liberty this book engages with both these themes addressing the lack of understanding about the character of british islam and its relationship to the liberal state it charts a gradual but decisive shift in british institutions concerned with islamic education islamic law and muslim representation since muslims settled in the uk in large numbers in the 1950s based on empirical research including interviews undertaken over a ten year period with muslims and analysis of public events organized by islamic institutions stephen jones challenges claims about the isolation of british islamic organizations and shows that they have decisively shaped themselves around british public and institutional norms he argues that this amounts to the building of a distinctive british islam using this narrative the book makes the case for a variety of liberalism that is open to the expression of religious arguments in public and to associations between religious groups and the state it also offers a powerful challenge to claims about the insularity of british islamic institutions by showing how the national orientation of islam called for by british policymakers is in fact already happening

Politics of the Islamic Tradition 2015-10-05 over the last two centuries the muslim world has undergone dramatic transformations impacting the islamic tradition and throwing into question our understanding of tradition the notion of tradition as an unmovable edifice is contradicted by the very process of its transmission and the complex role human beings play in creating and sustaining traditions is evident in the indigenous mechanisms of change within the islamic tradition politics of the islamic tradition locates the work of egyptian cleric muhammad al-

ghazali within the context of this dynamic islamic tradition with special focus on his political thought al ghazali inherited a vast and diverse heritage which he managed to reinterpret in a changing world an innovative exploration of the change and continuity present within muslim discourses this book brings together disparate threads of the islamic tradition religious exegesis the contemporary arab middle east the islamic state and idea of renewal in al ghazali s thought as well as being one of the first complete treatments of al ghazali s works this book provides an original critical approach to tradition and its capability for innovation and change countering the dichotomy between tradition and modernity that typically informs most scholarly studies on contemporary islam offering highly original insights into islamic thought and engaging with critical notions of tradition this book is essential reading for students and scholars of islamic politics and history

Almost a Foreign Country 2008 is it time to negotiate with bin laden is lying about sex ever or perhaps often a good idea to what extent do religion and culture shape the ways in which we communicate what is the mysterious syndrome called chois with which many long time pessimists suddenly find themselves diagnosed delve into this intriguing collection to find out the answers to these questions and many more in almost a foreign country a collection of columns articles and aphorisms manfred wolf brings his unique perspective to bear on a broad range of aspects characterizing our current reality and the way we live now from love and the relationships between men and women to time and aging from current political and social issues to the ever changing face of language wolf tackles them all often combining humor with a sharp somber perception of the issues that concern us all his point of view is always unflinching original and unapologetic manfred wolf is a university professor a widely published writer and a world traveler who has spent time in several very different cultures almost a foreign country provides its readers the unique opportunity to spend some time in his company and enjoy the many pleasures of his experience wit and always fascinating opinions

World of Faith and Freedom 2008-11-07 most trouble spots have some sort of religious component from iraq and afghanistan to israel and palestine these conflicts are of great geo political importance and of interest to the us yet argues farr our foreign policy is handicapped by an inability to understand the role of religion in these places

Roots Of Religious Extremism, The: Understanding The Salafi Doctrine Of Al-wala' Wal Bara' 2015-09-14 one of the issues in contemporary islamic thought which has attracted considerable attention amongst muslim scholars and within the muslim community is the valid and appropriate attitude of muslims to relationships with non muslims a major source of confusion and controversy with regards to this relationship comes from the allegation that muslims must reserve their love and loyalty for fellow muslims and reject and declare war on the rest of humanity most acutely seen through the islamic concept of al wala wal bara wb translated as loyalty and disavowal which appears to be central in the ideology of modern salafism this book investigates the dynamics and complexities of the concept of wb within modern salafism and aims to understand the diverse interpretation of this concept and how modern salafis understand and apply the concept in contemporary religious social and political settings the book discovers that the complexities diversities and disputes surrounding the concept in modern salafism often revolve around issues of social political and current realities the significance of this book lies in the fact that comprehending modern salafis conception of wb its realities and complexities has become an urgent priority in the lives of muslims today

Muslims in Europe 2017-08-25 this book probes questions and gives provocative answers for one of the crucial issues of our time are two cultures ever incompatible in one society in a series of essays spanning more than a decade manfred wolf examines the topic of muslims in europe exploring various aspects of the subject including cultural affinities or their absence several approaches to handling immigration the roots of radicalization and terrorism and the assimilation of muslims in europe versus the united states from elusive affinities assimilation is always hardest when the culture of origin differs radically from the culture of the new society arab cultures of the middle east and north africa revolve around a kind of islam induced authoritarianism an absolutist impulse which the new country sets itself against certain standardsdeference to parents obedience to government respect for forceare in those parts of the world accepted almost without question while european cultures encourage their citizens to question them the newcomer especially if hes young mistakes this seeming laxness for total permissiveness an absence of all standards and is almost surprised when the host culture clamps down and jails him for a criminal offense european culture seems amorphous without clear values and beliefs freedom looks like the absence of morality since so few absolute standards obtain why shouldnt you grope and fondle women at a public celebrationespecially when theyre so provocatively dressed this disaffinity between the two cultures makes assimilation extraordinarily difficult especially since assimilation entails accepting the morals the norms the mores of the new culture genuine multiculturalism is an abstraction one culture has to dominate

Islamic Divorce in North America 2012-04-30 policy makers and the public are increasingly attentive to the role of shari a in the everyday lives of western muslims with negative associations and public fears growing among their non muslim neighbors in the united states and canada the most common way north american muslims relate to shari a is in their observance of muslim marriage and divorce rituals recourse to traditional islamic marriage and to a lesser extent divorce is widespread julie macfarlane has conducted hundreds of interviews with muslim couples as well as with religious and community leaders and family conflict professionals her book describes how muslim marriage and divorce processes are used in north america and what they mean to those who embrace them as a part of their religious and cultural identity the picture that emerges is of an idiosyncratic private ordering system that reflects a wide range of attitudes towards contemporary family values and changes in gender roles some women describe pervasive assumptions about restrictions on their role in the family system as well as pressure to accept these values and to stay married others of both genders describe the gradual modernization of islamic family traditions and the subsequent emergence of a western shari a but a continuing commitment to the rituals of muslim marriage and divorce in their private lives readers will be challenged to consider how the secular state should respond in order to find a balance between state commitment to universal norms and formal equality and the protection of religious freedom expressed in private religious and cultural practices

Reasoning with God 2014-10-23 in light of recent concern over shari ah such as proposed laws to prohibit it in the united states and conflict over the role it should play in the new egyptian constitution many people are confused about the meaning of shari ah in islam and its role in the world today in reasoning with god renowned islamic scholar khaled abu el fadl explains not only what shari ah really means but also the way it can revitalize and reengage contemporary islam after a prologue that provides an essential overview of shari ah abu el fadl explores the moral trajectory of islam in today s world weaving powerful personal stories with broader global examples he shows the ways that some interpretations of islam today have undermined its potential in peace and love rather than simply outlining challenges however the author provides constructive suggestions about how muslims can reengage the ethical tradition of their faith through shari ah as the world s second largest religion islam remains an important force on the global stage reasoning with god takes readers both muslim and non muslim beyond superficial understandings of shari ah to a deeper understanding of its meaning and potential

What Is Islam? 2017-10-31 a bold new conceptualization of islam that reflects its contradictions and rich diversity what is islam how do we grasp a human and historical phenomenon characterized by such variety and contradiction what is islamic about islamic philosophy or islamic art should we speak of islam or of islams should we distinguish the islamic the religious from the islamicate the cultural or should we abandon islamic altogether as an analytical term in what is islam shahab ahmed presents a bold new conceptualization of islam that challenges dominant understandings grounded in the categories of religion and culture or those that privilege law and scripture he argues that these modes of thinking obstruct us from understanding islam distorting it diminishing it and rendering it incoherent what is islam formulates a new conceptual language for analyzing islam it presents a new paradigm of how muslims have historically understood divine revelation one that enables us to understand how and why muslims through history have embraced values such as exploration ambiguity aestheticization polyvalence and relativism as well as practices such as figural art music and even wine drinking as islamic it also puts forward a new understanding of the historical constitution of islamic law and its relationship to philosophical ethics and political theory a book that is certain to provoke debate and significantly alter our understanding of islam what is islam reveals how muslims have historically conceived of and lived with islam as norms and truths that are at once contradictory yet coherent

Islam and the Everyday World 2006-11-22 this is a new examination of how shari a law affects public policy both theoretically and in practice across a wide range of public policy areas including for example human rights and family law the process by which public policy is decided through elections debates political processes and political discourse has an additional dimension in the islamic world this is because shari a divine law has a great deal to say on many mundane matters of everyday life and must be taken into account in matters of public policy in addition matters are complicated further by the fact that there are differing interpretations of the shari a and how it should be applied to contemporary social issues written by leading experts in their field this is the first comprehensive single volume analysis of islam and public policy in the english language and offers further understanding of islam and its wider social and political implications

Freedom of Expression in Islam 2021-01-28 in muslim countries apostasy and blasphemy laws are defended on the grounds that they are based on islamic shari a and intended to protect religion but blasphemy and apostasy laws can be used both to suppress thought and debate and to harass religious minorities both inside and outside islam this book comprising contributions from muslim scholars experts and activists critically and constructively engages with the theological historical and legal reasoning behind the most restrictive state laws around the world to open up new ways of thinking the book focuses on the struggle within muslim societies in iran egypt pakistan and indonesia where blasphemy and apostasy laws serve powerful groups to silence dissent and stifle critical thought the first part of the book covers the development of the law in shifting historical circumstances and surveys the interpretations of qur anic verses that seem to affirm freedom of religion the second part examines the present politics and practices of prosecuting alleged blasphemers and or apostates in muslim countries the third part looks to the future and where reforms of the law could be possible debates on islam and freedom of expression are often cast in polarizing terms of rights versus religion east versus west this volume avoids such approaches by bringing together a diverse group of muslim scholars and activists with the knowledge commitment and courage to contest repressive interpretations of religion and provide a resource for reclaiming the human rights to freedom of expression and belief

Collective Ijtihad 2024-03-28 the contemporary postnormal world is posing for muslims ever strange ethical financial and medical dilemmas for which modern jurists are expected to provide a suitable theological response yet even with an encyclopedic knowledge of islamic law the task facing them is daunting in the real world this level of complexity has led to chaos in fatwa issuance with many scholars voicing concern at the direction to which things are moving and calling for the process to be regulated this book critiques fatwa issuance in the modern context and calls for application of a synthesized approach using the mechanism of collective ijthihad to formulate rulings and overcome current weaknesses it carefully examines central juristic concepts and puts forward consultative ijthihad as a viable alternative to the controversial classical ijma approach which may be difficult to realize in the contemporary world the author argues that fatwas become questionable when jurists out of their depth fail to grasp concepts which only engagement with specialists can fully elucidate or give way to top down financial and or political pressure from the executives of institutions employing them matters are compounded by the face of fatwas having undergone a radical transformation in modern times with online programs and social media often a go to source for muslims the author exposes the world of modern fatwa pronouncements packaged supplied and broadcast in a matter of minutes under a mentality of one fatwa fits all in a bid for much needed reform he calls for a reassessment of current institutional practices contending that muslim societies need not be vulnerable to the demands of a media driven technocratic age with rapid shifts in ethical norms but that in the interests of a healthy functioning society issue fatwas cognizant of the wider modern context specialist knowledge as well as the cultural diversity that exists in the common ummatic identity

Living between Science and Belief 2021-03-02 most thoughtful people live in an interregnum between science and religion traditional religious answers concerning the beginning purpose and end of life are questioned by the natural sciences with neuroscience conceivably constituting the last frontier where skeptics and believers explore common ground the question concerns the nature of reflective and creative moments in life can these be reduced to the intersect between the nerve cells and molecules of the physical brain does this account for the human sense of mystery or even spirituality is there a nexus between the physical and unknown dimensions of existence the mutation in the history of theism suggest that progressive theology in the west may be set for a further change

Journeys Toward Gender Equality in Islam 2022-04-07 if justice is an intrinsic value in islam why have women been treated as second class citizens in islamic legal tradition today the idea of gender equality inherent to contemporary conceptions of justice presents a challenge to established patriarchal interpretations of shari a in thought provoking discussions with six influential muslim intellectuals abdullahi an na'im

amina wadud asma lamrabet khaled abou el fadl mohsen kadivar and sedigheh vasmaghi ziba mir hosseini explores how egalitarian gender laws might be constructed from within the islamic legal framework

Contemporary Issues in Islam 2015-08-31 this book deals with certain quote hot button quote contemporary issues in islam that are often the focus of public scrutiny including the sharia jihad the caliphate women s status and interfaith relations notably it places the discussion of these topics within a longer historical framework in order to reveal their multiple interpretations and contested applications over time most public and some academic discourses however present the islamic tradition as unchanging and therefore unable to respond to the modern world such an ahistorical approach fosters the belief that muslim and western societies are destined to clash with one another in contrast this book allows the reader to see the diversity and transformations within islamic thought over time focusing on this internal diversity permits us to appreciate the scriptural and intellectual resources available within the islamic tradition for responding to the challenges of modernity even as it interrogates and shapes modernity itself

Islam and Gender 2020-05-17 given the intense political scrutiny of islam and muslims which often centres on gendered concerns islam and gender major issues and debates is an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the key topics problems and debates in this engaging subject split into three parts this book places the discussion in its historical context provides up to date case studies and delves into contemporary debate on the subject this book includes discussion of the following important topics marriage and divorce interpretations of the qur an and sunna male and female sexuality and sexual diversity classical islamic thought on masculinity and femininity gender and hadith polygamy and inheritance adultery and sexual violence veiling female circumcision and crimes of honour lived religiosities gender justice in islam islam and gender is essential reading for students in religious studies islamic studies and gender studies as well as those in related fields such as cultural studies politics area studies sociology anthropology and history

Islam in America 2015-03-31 islam is a hidden ingredient in the melting pot of america though there are between 2 and 8 million muslims in the usa islam has traditionally had little political clout compared to other minority faiths nonetheless it is believed to be the country s fastest growing religion with a vibrant culture of theological debate particularly regarding the role of women preachers in islam in america jonathan curiel traces the story of america s muslims from the seventeenth century slave trade to the eighteenth century immigration wave to the nation of islam drawing on interviews in communities from industrial michigan to rural california curiel portrays the diversity of practices cultures and observances that make up muslim america he profiles the leading personalities and institutions representing the community and explores their relationship to the wider politics of america particularly after 9 11 islam in america offers an indispensable guide to the social life of modern islam and the diversity of contemporary america

The Spirit of Tolerance in Islam 2012-01-27 in 1932 the eminent british scholar of islam sir hamilton gibb wrote the nobility and broad tolerance of this religion islam which accepted all the real religions of the world as god inspired will always be a glorious heritage for mankind no other society has such a record of success in uniting in an equality of status of opportunity and of endeavor so many and so various races of humanity whither islam such scholarly objectivity towards the tolerance which has historically characterized the islamic tradition as a whole is in short supply these days through an insidious symbiosis of fanatical muslims and prejudiced islamophobes the very opposite image of islam has emerged as one of the most dangerous stereotypes of our times the most cursory glance at history will not only reveal the falsity of this stereotype of an intolerant islam it will also reveal the little known fact that not so long ago it was the islamic world that provided models of tolerant conduct for a fanatically intolerant christian world tearing itself apart over dogmatic differences the first part of this monograph examines the historical record of tolerance in the islamic tradition illustrating the expression of the principle of tolerance through the rule of such dynasties as the ottomans mughals fatimids and the umayyads of spain in the second the principle of tolerance is shown to be rooted in the spirit of the qur anic revelation and embodied in the exemplary conduct of the prophet

Constructing a Religiously Ideal ',Believer', and ',Woman', in Islam

2016-04-30 in this comprehensive study adis duderija examines how neo traditional salafi thought nts and progressive muslims interpret the normative concepts of believer and muslim woman in contemporary islam

Reform and Modernity in Islam 2013-05-30 the debate over islam and modernity tends to be approached from a eurocentric perspective that presents western norms as a template for progress against which islamic societies can be measured this misses the historical development of muslim reformist thought that actively engages with the world around it and seeks to reconfigure islam within the diverse conditions of modernity safdar ahmed paints a complex and nuanced picture that goes beyond the idea that muslim reformers have either reproduced or reacted against western ideas rather ahmed argues they have reconstructed and appropriated these ideas and so the thread of western influence runs through modern islamic thought on nationalism and sovereignty femininity and gender ahmed uncovers new historiographical perspectives by critically examining the work of prominent intellectuals such as muhammad abduh qasim amin and abdul ala maududi

Rethinking Islam and Human Rights 2023 rethinking islam and human rights is the first book to delineate an original way of understanding the organic production of islamic knowledge on human rights that overcomes the fragmented nature of the rapprochement literature that focuses on change in the context of either islamic scripture formalized islamic knowledge or islamic sensibility experiential islamic knowing thus this book combines an appreciation for both facets of religious knowledge with an emphasis on the symbiotic relationship between the two to achieve this this book weaves together theoretical insights from a range of disciplines while reworking process tracing methodology to focus on a single case study analysis of hizmet s practices also known as the gülen movement to flesh out the dynamics of this interactive change and the centrality of practice based knowledge production therein in doing so this book analytically demonstrates how and why social movement practice organically unassumingly unintentionally and often times counter intentionally produces socially transformative formalized islamic knowledge on human rights as a result this book shows how it is possible to account for the production assimilation legitimization and externalization of islamic knowledge through a single relational process on some of the most intransigent issues in the context of islam and human rights that is apostasy and women s rights consequently this book offers us an original distinctive and important pathway of re assessing age old challenges at the cross sectional impasse of change stability and religious knowledge production which extends beyond those associated with islam and human rights

Interpreting Islam in China 2017-09-01 during the early modern period muslims in china began to embrace the chinese characteristics of their heritage several scholar teachers incorporated tenets from traditional chinese education into their promotion of islamic knowledge as a result some sino muslims established an educational network which utilized an islamic curriculum made up of arabic persian and chinese works the corpus of chinese islamic texts written in this system is collectively labeled the han kitab interpreting islam in china explores the sino islamic intellectual tradition through the works of some its brightest luminaries three prominent sino muslim authors are used to illustrate transformations within this tradition wang daiyu liu zhi and ma dexin kristian petersen puts these scholars in dialogue and demonstrates the continuities and departures within this tradition through an analysis of their writings he considers several questions how malleable are religious categories and why are they variously interpreted across time how do changing historical circumstances affect the interpretation of religious beliefs and practices how do individuals navigate multiple sources of authority how do practices inform belief overall he shows that these authors presented an increasingly universalistic portrait of islam through which sino muslims were encouraged to participate within the global community of muslims the growing emphasis on performing the pilgrimage to mecca comprehensive knowledge of the qur an and personal knowledge of arabic stimulated communal engagement petersen demonstrates that the integration of sino muslims within a growing global environment where international travel and communication was increasingly possible was accompanied by the rising self awareness of a universally engaged muslim community

The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Politics 2016-10 over the past three decades scholars government analysts and terrorism experts have examined the relationship between islam and politics but specialists have tended to limit their analysis to a specific country or focus few works have provided a geographically comprehensive in depth analysis since 9 11 another wave of literature on political islam and global terrorism has appeared much of it superficial and sensationalist this situation underscores the need for a comprehensive analytical and in depth examination of islam and politics in the post 9 11 era and in an increasingly globalizing world the oxford handbook of islam and politics with contributions from prominent scholars and specialists provides a comprehensive analysis of what we know and where we are in the study of political islam it enables scholars students and policymakers to understand the interaction of islam and politics and the multiple and diverse roles of islamic movements as well as issues of authoritarianism and democratization religious extremism and terrorism regionally and globally

Political Islam, Justice and Governance 2018-11-08 this book argues that political islam represented by its moderate and militant forms has failed to govern effectively or successfully due to its inability to reconcile its discursive understanding of islam centered on literal justice with the dominant neo liberal value of freedom consequently islamists polities have largely been abject often tragic failures in providing a viable collective life and sound governance this argument is developed theoretically and supported through a set of case studies represented by the muslim brotherhood in egypt under president muhammad morsi s tenure hassan turabi s national islamic front in sudan and the islamic state in iraq and syria isis it is ideal for audiences interested in regional politics islamic studies and middle eastern studies
