Stanley Cavell and the Magic of Hollywood Films

2019-08-05

one of america s most important contemporary thinkers stanley cavell s remarkable film philosophy proposed that the greatest hollywood films reflect the struggle to become who we really are a struggle that is foregrounded in the characteristically american theory of emersonian perfectionism focusing on his account of what makes hollywood movies so magical dan shaw draws on cavell s theories to interpret a range of classic and contemporary dramas including mr smith goes to washington 1939 boys don t cry 1999 and the hurt locker 2008 pairing of these analyses with discussions of cavell s precursors including emerson nietzsche and mill the book explores a distinctively american philosophical foundation for the study of hollywood film

Narratives of Inequality

2017-11-08

this book reveals the economic motivations underpinning colonial neocolonial and neoliberal eras of global capitalism that are represented in critiques of inequality in postcolonial fiction today s economic inequality suffered disproportionately by indigenous and minority groups of postcolonial societies in both developed and developing countries is a direct outcome of the colonial era imposition of capitalist structures and practices the longue durée world systems approach in this study reveals repeating patterns and trends in the mechanics of capitalism that create and maintain inequality as well as this it reveals the social and cultural beliefs and practices that justify and support inequality yet equally which resist and condemn it through analysis of narrative representations of wealth accumulation and ownership structures of internal inequality between the rich and the poor within cultural communities and the psychology of capitalism that engenders particular emotions and behaviour this study brings postcolonial literary economics to the neoliberal debate arguing for the important contribution of the imaginary to the pressing issue of economic inequality and its solutions

Bruce Dickinson: Insights

bruce dickinson best known as the lead vocalist of iron maiden seems to have unbounded energy ideas and imagination he mesmerises thousands of fans with his integrity vitality and wit wouldn't it be great to know what makes him tick those who know bruce dickinson know this man doesn't do things by halves thus he was voted a living example of a polymath by intelligent life magazine in 2009 bruce has been recognised as a singer a tv presenter a record producer a pilot and a fencer therefore it should be no surprise that his lyrics also stand out his subject matters are challenging he reflects on life and death freedom and destiny man and god sex and religion asked about the complexity of his lyrics bruce said in an interview i ask myself does it rock and if it does who gives a s t what s it s about all information s there if people choose to dig for it the treasures you can find are absolutely worth the digging bruce also added and if they don't then it doesn't matter so long as they enjoy it bruce dickinson is an undisputed master of heavy metal his voice and music are a natural force the subjects are extremely interesting and bruce succeeds in artfully getting to the heart of them this is why this book is dedicated to bruce as a songwriter as a poet of lyrics some of which represent little masterpieces even without music they point beyond themselves by means of powerful imagery their ambiguity holds some surprises the best way to get to know the real bruce dickinson probably is to have a beer with him but he admitted that through his lyrics you can certainly maybe get an idea of what is going on with myself and that's why all fans of bruce and iron maiden should read this book

(Beyond) Posthuman Violence: Epic Rewritings of Ethics in the Contemporary Novel

neuroscience tells us that the brain is nothing but a metaphor machine capable of extracting meaning from a chaotic reality following agamben arendt benjamin and Žižek a theory of violence can be established according to which violence is a reaction on the part of the individual to the frustration generated by having her metaphor machine suppressed by the mythic narrative of the law in opposition to mythic violence benjamin posits the justice of divine violence divine justice is an excess of life the very uniqueness of the metaphor machine the individual is affected by a difficulty to communicate her metaphor machine to the other as if it were inexpressible this work explores how the characters in the works of david foster wallace cormac macCarthy j g ballard bret easton ellis chuck palahniuk william gibson neal stephenson maurice g dante and china mieville suffer from these limits of language and the constrictions of the law through violence they look for their individual voice intended as their will to say the pure taking place of language agamben in their struggle to be heard these characters are however deaf to the voice of the other there is a need for a new ethics of narratives expressed through an epic of the voice founded on the will to listen along the lines of the concept of the posthuman theorized by rosi braidotti here subjectivity is a process of constant autopoiesis dependent on the relationship the individual has with the other and the environment around her that is in the reciprocal will to say and will to listen human beings can meet in the taking place of language in the place before the suppressive language of the law is even born in a meeting of voices

Impact of Addictive Substances and Behaviours on Individual and Societal Well-being

impact of addictive substances and behaviours on individual and societal well being outlines an innovative and fascinating new framework for understanding the harm that addictive substances and behaviours can cause taking a holistic approach and with well being as a central tenet it demonstrates how using different methods can lead to a more just and evidence based approach to dealing with addictions presenting the latest and most comprehensive research the expert team of authors examines the harm caused by addictive substances and behaviour factors that contribute to addictions and current european approaches to governing addictive substances and behaviours it is both legal and illegal drugs and behaviour that cause harm for the world as a whole cigarettes were the second largest cause of ill health and early death in 2010 alcohol the fifth and illegal drugs the eighteenth regular and sustained heavy engagement in addictive substances and behaviour also impacts on quality of life and material living conditions the well being framework outlined here for understanding this impact places particular emphasis on the reciprocal relationship between well being and drug use well being can be a driver of the heavy use of addictive substances and behaviours and also compounds the harm done furthermore the response of society can increase the harm caused by drug use and stigma social exclusion and the actions of the criminal justice system can impair individual and societal well being considerably impact of addictive substances and behaviours on individual and societal well being is based on the research from alice rap a multidisciplinary european study of addictive substances and behaviours in contemporary society a timely addition to the field this book is essential reading for those wanting to make a real impact in the field of addiction prevention policy including public managers practitioners public health professionals and stakeholders influencing policy for addictive substances and behaviours as well as academics euthanasia emerged as a talking point for progressives and secularists in the west in the 1960s given that they simply appropriated without anyone's permission control of national and private broadcasters newspapers and university faculties it became eo ipso a matter of public controversy other modish enthusiasms of that period sexual licentiousness and psychotropic drugs for example have long been abandoned but the quest for legislative sanctioning of the killing of the old and infirm and distressed never abated not a parliamentary year passed in one of the Australian states it seemed or even at commonwealth level but another bill was placed on the notice paper well in the states of Victoria and Western Australia that bill is now an act as it is in Canada various states in the USA the Netherlands Belgium and other nation states it has remained an article of faith for the left throughout all of the decades of post modernity just like that other form of authorised killing abortion why is this what is it about these issues that evoke in the minds and imaginations of liberals and leftists an almost millenarian enthusiasm it required a scholar of Father Fleming's insight and experience to provide us with the explanation in this the latest and in my view most important of his publications his answer takes us to a close examination of the real legacy of the enlightenment and it is not the benign and rational one that generations of us have been taught to believe in our schools his careful unravelling of the three centuries of the secular project from Rousseau to safe schools can leave us in no doubt as to what comes next if we don't stand up for the Christian inheritance of our institutes it was always about power and power always ends up being about persecution Father Fleming has been a priest a broadcaster a controversialist and a scholar in his long and distinguished journey through public life his book will be essential reading for the many Christian folk of all denominations who now understand that our age will be one that will call upon them to be soldiers as well as servants for the church Stuart H Lindsay barrister and former federal circuit court judge

German Structural Pacifism

can the meaning of religious language be separated from its use in religious language meaning and use robert bolger and robert coburn address what has become a contentious though often overlooked account of the relationship between religious belief and religious practice through philosophical argumentation and by means of a variety of sermon like essays on religious topics this book seeks to return religion to the place in which the meaning and practical impact of its beliefs become inseparable from the life of the believer part i begins by considering through the loose lens of wittgenstein s philosophical method how religious language has been misunderstood leading straightway to a variety of challenges and conceptual confusions part ii presents previously unpublished essays written by robert c coburn who has for over 50 years been at the forefront of the study of metaphysics and philosophy of religion making a compelling case for a religious practice that avoids trivializing religious belief this book promises to be a corrective to those who see faith as nothing more than ethics in disguise and to those metaphysicians who see faith as a set of beliefs jan olav henriksen investigates the close relationship between god and human beings via an understanding of religion as clusters of practices that relate humans to ultimacy by different types of representation christian religion articulates its belief in god as creator manifest in the power to be and redeemer represented in the life and ministry of jesus christ christ thus is the primary representation of god as the ultimate reality of love he is also the true image of god and the model for how humans are also called to represent god in love the human features of desire and vulnerability as these express elements that shape form and articulate challenges for human life present humans with the need for orienting themselves and for different types of transformation christian religion articulates a specific mode of how to cope with these challenges presented by desire and vulnerability by living in love against this backdrop henriksen argues that neither how one understands religion god nor how to live a life that relates to ultimacy can be tasks fulfilled as long as history goes on much of the political polarization that grips the united states is rooted in the so called culture wars and no topic defines this conflict better than the often contentious and sometimes violent debate over abortion rights in sign of pathology nathan stormer reframes our understanding of this conflict by examining the medical literature on abortion from the 1800s to the 1960s often framed as an argument over a right to choose versus a right to life our current understanding of this conflict is as a contest over who has the better position on reproductive biology against this view sign of pathology argues that as it became a medical problem abortion also became a template more generally for struggling with how to live far exceeding discussions of the merits of providing abortions or how to care for patients abortion practices and all the legal moral and ideological entanglements thereof have rested firmly at the center of debate over many fundamental institutions and concepts namely the individual the family the state human rights and indeed the human medical rhetoric then was decisive in cultivating abortion as a mode of cultural critique even weaponizing it for discursive conflict on these important subjects although the goal of the medical practice of abortion has never been to establish this kind of struggle storrer argues that the medical discourse of abortion physicians transformed the state of abortion into an indicator that the culture was ill attacking itself during and through pregnancy in a wrongheaded attempt to cope with reproduction tracing the notion of the gift in nietzsche s thus spoke zarathustra emilio corriero provides a new interpretation of this essential text alongside the gift s evolution as a key concept in the history of western philosophy and christianity the last phase of nietzsche s thought including his writings on the death of god the will to power the overman and eternal recurrence are analysed anew in corriero s reading of thus spoke zarathustra from nietzsche s prologue in which zarathustra presents the idea of the overman as a gift of love and wisdom up to the fourth and final book in which the theme of hospitality and sacrifice are inextricably linked to the concept of donation highlighting the novelty and exceptionality of zarathustra s gift building on these ideas this book reveals how the gift of zarathustra put forward by nietzsche rethinks the relationships between individuals based on christian doctrine enabling new forms of coexistence and sociality to thrive in the god who goes before you michael s wilder and timothy paul jones establish a foundation for christian leadership that draws not from human assumptions but from the wisdom of god by considering the whole canon of scripture as their supreme and sufficient authority wilder and jones present both pastors and laity with a christ centered kingdom focused vision of godly leadership when it comes to leadership there is much to be learned from empirical research and from marketplace leaders however without scripture as our authority flawed views of god s purposes and human nature will skew our understanding of the character and practices of god called leaders in this book wilder and jones redefine leadership as christ centered followership and present a radically countercultural perspective on leadership practices in the church today
