Identities 1881 the human geography of the uk is currently being reshaped by a number of forces such as globalisation transition in the organisations of production the changing character of state intervention and changing relationships with europe a consideration of the impacts of these forces on economic social and political landscapes is therefore an urgent task at the same time enduring institutional features of the british economy and polity are also having important influences on socio economic processes the result is a complex mosaic of uneven development which

believes the notion of simplistic regional contrasts rather than simply mapping spatial inequality a united kingdom charts the processes underpinning uneven development at a range of scales and for a number of key topics the book draws upon and synthesises the latest contemporary research findings and places emphasis on the interrelated nature of economic social and political geographies it treats the human geographies of the uk in a coherent and integrated way and asks whether contemporary processes of change are tending towards the reduction of socio spatial divisions or their reproduction in new forms
