Christopher Hibbault's Roadmaker is an absorbing fiction with amusing characters. The captivating story of Christopher filled with his adventures makes an exciting read. Excerpt: Christopher's experiences of driving were of a very limited nature and certainly they did not embrace anything like this. He had no recollection of ever having travelled by train and it was the question of pace that fascinated him. The rapid, easy swinging movement through the air, the fresh breeze rushing by, the distancing of humbler wayfarers, all gave him a strange sense of exhilaration. Years afterward when flesh and blood were all too slow for him and he was one of the best motorists in England, if not in Europe, he used to recall the rapturous pleasure of that first drive of his, that first introduction to the mad, tense joy of speed that ever after held him in thrall.
