psychologists the mission of this journal is to positively influence the daily practice of school based professionals through studies demonstrating successful research based practices in educational settings as a result the editors are committed to publishing articles with an eye toward improving student performance and outcomes by advancing psychological and educational practices in the schools they seek articles using non technical language that 1 outline an evidence based practice 2 describe the literature supporting the effectiveness and theoretical underpinnings of the practice 3 describe the findings of a study in which the practice was implemented in an educational setting and 4 provide readers with information they need to implement the practice in their own schools in a section entitled implementation guidelines the journal of evidence based practices for schools differs from other scholarly journals in that it features articles that demonstrate empirically based procedures for readers to apply the practice in their setting the mission of the international journal of educational reform ijer is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities as the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies ijer provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream to this end ijer includes but
