Annual report of the State Hospital Commission. 1896 1896

jeffrey frank author of the bestselling ike and dick returns with the first full account of the truman presidency in nearly thirty years recounting how so ordinary a man met the extraordinary challenge of leading america through the pivotal years of the mid 20th century the nearly eight years of harry truman s presidency among the most turbulent in american history were marked by victory in the wars against germany and japan the first use of an atomic weapon the beginning of the cold war creation of the nato alliance the founding of the united nations the marshall plan to rebuild the wreckage of postwar europe the red scare and the fateful decision to commit troops to fight in korea historians have tended to portray truman as stolid and decisive with a homespun manner but the man who emerges in the trials of harry s truman is complex and surprising he believed that the point of public service was to improve the lives of one s fellow citizens and was disturbed by the brutal treatment of african americans yet while he supported stronger civil rights laws he never quite relinquished the deep rooted outlook of someone with confederate ancestry reared in rural missouri he was often carried along by the rush of events and guided by men who succeeded in refining his fixed and facile view of the postwar world and while he prided himself on his midwestern rationality he could act out of emotion as when in the aftermath of world war ii moved by the plight of refugees he pushed to recognize the new state of israel the truman who emerges in these pages is a man with generous impulses loyal to friends and family and blessed with keen political instincts but insecure quick to anger and prone to hasty decisions archival discoveries and research that led from missouri to washington berlin and korea have contributed to an indelible and deeply human portrait of an ordinary man suddenly forced to shoulder extraordinary responsibilities who never lost a schoolboy s romantic love for his country and its constitution

it has been said that every generation of historians seeks to rewrite what a previous generation had established as the standard interpretations of the motives and circumstances shaping the fabric of historical events it is not that the facts of history have changed no one will dispute that the battle of waterloo occurred on june 11 1815 or that the allied invasion of europe began on june 6 1944 whatr 2023-09-15 of historians are attempting to do 377 to reinterpret the motives of men and the force

~~of circumstance impacting the direction of past events based on the factual social intellectual and~~ cultural milieu of their own generation by examining the facts of history from a new perspective today's historians hope to reveal some new truth that will not only illuminate the course of history but also validate contemporary values and societal ideals although it is true that tackling the task of developing a new text on logistics and distribution channel management focuses less on schools of philosophical and social analysis and more on the calculus of managing sales campaigns inventory replenishment and income statements the goal of the management scientist like the historian is to merge the facts and figures of the discipline with today's organizational cultural and economic realities hopefully the result will be a new synthesis where a whole new perspective will break forth exposing new directions and opportunities
