first published in 1968 culture industrialisation and education explores the cultural values that underlie the content of educational provisions and the way in which industrialisation and the mass communication characteristic of advanced technology have affected what is offered in schools the book puts forward the argument that the traditional curriculum with its emphasis on cognitive and intellectual processes is in many cases irrelevant to the needs of children whose futures are in occupations that do not centre on academic pursuits it highlights the distinct lack of provision for these children at a time when a fuller and longer secondary education is being attempted for the whole population culture industrialisation and education will appeal to those with an interest in the history and sociology of education this book takes up the obtrusive problem of visual representation of fiction in contemporary russian book design by analyzing a broad variety of book covers the study offers an absolutely unique material that illustrates a radically changing notion of literature in the transformation of soviet print culture to a post soviet book market it delivers a profound and critical exploration of russian visual imaginary of classic popular and contemporary prose among all the carelessly bungled covers of mass published post soviet series the study identifies gems from experimental designers by taking a comparative approach to the clash of two formerly separate book cultures the western and the soviet that results both in a mixture of highbrow and lowbrow forms and in ideological re interpretations of the literary works this book contributes to opening an east west dialogue between the fields of russian studies contemporary book and media history art design and visual studies
