alex gray a great story told with real poise simon kernick sunday times bestseller an astonishing debut woman s own crime as it should be written gripping addictive a thrill of a ride jo spain international bestseller a smart distinctive debut sunday mirror i loved it it s taut beautifully written and at some points the tension is almost too much to bear harriet tyce i really loved this a twisting heart wrenching story with wonderfully vivid characters claire mcgowan the beauty industry is now a multinational multi million dollar business in recent years its place in contemporary culture has altered hugely as salons have become not simply places to have your hair cut or your nails done but increasingly sites of physical and even spiritual therapy in this fascinating and nuanced study paula black strips away many popular assumptions about the beauty industry including the one that says it exploits people s insecurity by projecting an illusory beauty myth the interviews in this book both with the beauty industry s workers and its clients reveal a far more complex and interesting picture and in their presentation black re formulates many feminist debates around choice and constraint the debates addressed include issues around the body the construction and maintenance of gender identity changing definitions of health and well being and labour processes when you see a township resident driving past in their new car and they wave and you wave back it is extremely gratifying to know that they built their chakalaka business based on the small contract you gave them ten years previously and now they have expanded and provide other companies with products because they were able to seize the opportunity you offered to them and developed it mazwane mazwane has become a legend in south africa as a pioneering entrepreneur and an inspiration for those who ask questions about opportunities in the informal township economy her answer to those who doubt whether they can make it is that you do it through perseverance sacrifice seizing opportunities and offering superior products and service in 1989 phumlaphi rita zwane left kwazulu natal to find work in johannesburg after becoming a teenage mother she could count on the love of her family a matric certificate and her faith but had no job prospects and no knowledge of the business world or life in the big cities her memoir takes the reader from the tough times of finding her feet in johannesburg through a variety of jobs and life experiences to finally fighting her way to success as a respected member of the township economy and starting the successful imbizo shisanyama business mazwane tells how she progressed from having virtually no income or permanent home to becoming the first person to formalise and commercialise shisanyama in the townships and provide a comfortable home and legacy for her children along the way she befriended many people who contributed accommodation job opportunities advice and companionship with them cheering her on she learned how to navigate the different and difficult aspects of the hospitality industry and slowly reach her desired place of independent security conquering the poverty of the mind from shipping container to busy corner shows the true grit of a zulu girl who believed in herself and did it against all odds for level 2 hairdressing students on nvq svq and vrq courses a genuinely new and innovative way for students to study hairdressing this new textbook is supported with extensive multimedia material and activities at no extra cost some books include a few videos and basic materials but this title comes with over 250 free online resources and activity screens with which to improve learning online questions are also included as well as links to other resources such as images animations and videos the elearning resources are included in every chapter to complement the textbook content and will help students from the start of their qualification until they pass their final exams published in 1993 this book considers the needs of older teenage students and the various forms of provision made for them the 16 19 sector of education is a transition stage for students and a system in transition for educators at a time of rapid change the author assesses the significance of current trends and recent legislation for managers teachers and lecturers in schools and colleges catering for this age group eric macfarlane argues that the 16 19 sector provides both a microcosm and intensification of the tensions divisions and conflicting aims and objectives present throughout the education system as a whole he explores the differences that exist between the academic and vocational routes to qualification between the comprehensive selective and independent systems and between traditional and progressive approaches to the learning process the ideologies and policies that have produced the present system are traced and the case for reform examined different management tasks in 16 19 education are considered with emphasis on current changes in strategies and structures the book highlights the distinctive features of the various types of institution that provide for students aged 16 19 and the ways in which these distinctions are becoming blurred the final chapters consider the future of 16 19 provision and the particular impact of the 1992 further and higher education act the weekly source of african american political and
