the central question of this book is this what is god s relation to humanity augustine said that our hearts were restless until they rest in god but how do we find god to rest in him this book is my attempt at an answer it is the cry of a soul steeped in jesus christ longing for its all beautiful god shall our god be as great as we can imagine shall our love of god have any taint of fear how do we get jesus christ into our hearts to be like him can a human being be brought into the world by its god and be irrevocably lost how can the humanity of jesus be shared by each person if that humanity is even possibly at eternal enmity with its maker is there anything that could justify believing in the failure of god even a theory of inspiration how so if it meant that god could not be god such questions are explored here this book has no agenda nor must it when it runs into doubts conform to any creed its aim is simply this to find and love and rest in our god this book develops a contemporary model of spiritual struggle aimed at perpetual ascent to and in god spiritual struggle in this project which ultimately shifts the emphasis from virtue's acquisition to its pursuit is defined as the exertion of effort in all conceivable dimensions physical emotional psychological intellectual and spiritual with intent to attain a semblance of knowledge of and intimacy with jesus christ in community for god and for others gregory of nyssa's theory of epektasis assumes a basic three tiered conception of perpetual ascent beginning with purification and detachment from fleshly passions strengthening the soul by increasing in similitude to god and ending with unity with god that is with inexpressible and transformative experience of god god the infinite the good and the paragon of virtue functions as the orienting principle of this perpetual ascent mitigating the issues of the unity of the virtues and the self centeredness and self effacement of virtue this book goes on to provide two of many potential concrete instantiations of this suggested model the first is the application of this model to the body which in turn will have implications for contemporary sexual ethics the second is a reintegration of ethics and scripture through the contemporary application of an ancient patristic lectio divina

if you were god writing a book you wanted men to understand would you write it in such a way that men would have to make up meaning in order to understand it or would you write it in such a way that those that seek to understand could actually come to a knowledge of its truth mt 7 7 the present commentary takes the position that god wrote revelation such that with sufficient effort and intellectual honesty readers can understand it certainly god uses symbols in revelation but when he does he provides inspired interpretations of the symbols this commentary seeks to avoid the mistakes of the views that use the symbolical approach to revelation preterist continuous historical spiritualist and idealist these approaches suffer from two basic flaws assuming the text is symbolical when it is not and making up meaning regarding the text based on stream of consciousness word association much as one would do looking at roschach inkblots this commentary seeks to avoid telling god what he should have said and strives to understand what god actually meant of all the existing approaches to understanding revelation this commentary is most closely aligned with the dispensationalist premillennialist left behind view in that it views revelation from a literalist perspective it is different from the typical dispensationalist schema in that it views the seven seals as the powers of the lamb understands the exercise of the powers of the seven seals to be simultaneous processes and casts chapters 8 22 as three parallel prophecies of the lamb s power over the course of the histories of israel the nations and the saints this commentary also makes use of many of the non canonical works that provide insight into the spirit world and detail regarding the end of the present age
