christians should be involved in political issues in brief this is an analysis of conservative and liberal plans to do good for the nation evaluated in light of the bible and common sense in this ground breaking book recognized evangelical bible professor wayne grudem rejects five mistaken views about christian influence on politics 1 compel religion 2 exclude religion 3 all government is demonic 4 do evangelism not politics and 5 do politics not evangelism he proposes a better alternative 6 significant christian influence on government then he explains the bible's teachings about the purpose of civil government and the characteristics of good or bad government does the bible support some form of democracy should judges and the courts hold the ultimate power in a nation with respect to specific political issues grudem argues that most people's political views depend on deep seated assumptions about several basic moral and even theological questions such as whether god exists whether absolute moral standards can be known whether there is good and evil in each person's heart whether people should be accountable for their good and bad choices whether property should belong to individuals or to society and whether the purpose of the earth's resources is to bring benefit to mankind after addressing these foundational questions grudem provides a thoughtful carefully reasoned analysis of over fifty specific issues dealing with the protection of life marriage the family and children economic issues and taxation the environment national defense relationships to other nations freedom of speech and religion quotas and special interests he makes frequent application to the current policies of the democratic and republican parties in the united states but the principles discussed here are relevant for any nation
