book that explains the transformative power of suffering most people understand that suffering and sorrow are inevitable parts of every life and that illness death or loss of a loved one are universal experiences not retribution or a symptom of bad luck but few of us comprehend the ways in which suffering can give rise to growth in this sensitive and caring book kathleen brehony describes the experiences of people who have endured life s trials and consequently found deeper spiritual and psychological meaning in their lives drawing on a rich selection of mythological and religious stories from many faiths berhony provides a historical and cultural context that enriches the meaning of these deeply personal tales after the darkest hour explores the qualities psychological behavioral and spiritual of those who have turned periods of pain and suffering into opportunities for growth and renewal the final chapters offer exercises that will help readers approach the difficult situations they face in a more conscious enlightened way as well as specific suggestions for creating personal healing rituals a portrait of a pivotal chapter in the civil war featuring scheming politicians bumbling generals and an increasingly disheartened northern public brooks simpson author of ulysses s grant triumph over adversity 1822 1865 in mr lincoln goes to war award winning historian william marvel focused on president abraham lincoln s first year in office in lincoln s darkest year he paints a picture of 1862 again relying on recently unearthed primary sources and little known accounts to offer newfound detail of this tumultuous period marvel highlights not just the actions but also the deeper motivations of major figures including gen ulysses s grant jefferson davis george b mcclellan stonewall jackson and most notably lincoln himself as the action darts from the white house to the battlefields and back the author sheds new light on the hardships endured by everyday citizens and the substantial and sustained public opposition to the war combining fluid prose and scholarship with the skills of an investigative historical detective marvel unearths the true story of our nation s greatest crisis netflix3 gendun chopel is considered the most important tibetan intellectual of the twentieth century his life spanned the two defining moments in modern tibetan history the entry into lhasa by british troops in 1904 and by chinese troops in 1951 recognized as an incarnate lama while he was a child gendun chopel excelled in the traditional monastic curriculum and went on to become expert in fields as diverse as philosophy history linguistics geography and tantric buddhism near the end of his life before he was persecuted and imprisoned by the government of the young dalai lama he would dictate the adornment for nagarjuna s thought a work on madhyamaka or middle way philosophy it sparked controversy immediately upon its publication and continues to do so today the madman s middle way presents the first english translation of this major tibetan buddhist work accompanied by an essay on gendun chopel s life liberally interspersed with passages from his writings donald s lopez jr also provides a commentary that sheds light on the doctrinal context of the adornment and summarizes its key arguments ultimately lopez examines the long standing debate over whether gendun chopel in fact is the author of the adornment the heated critical response to the work by tibetan monks of the dalai lama s sect and what the adornment tells us about tibetan buddhism s encounter with modernity the result is an insightful glimpse into a provocative and enigmatic workthatwill be of great interest to anyone seriously interested in buddhism or asian religions by 1885 stanley had become deeply interested in the schemes of mr afterwards sir william mackinnon chairman of the british india steam navigation company for establishing a british protectorate in east equatorial africa and it was believed that this object could be furthered at the same time that relief was afforded to emin pasha governor of the the equatorial province of egypt who had been isolated by the mahdist rising of 1881 1885 instead of choosing the direct route stanley decided to go by way of the congo as thereby he would be able to render services to the infant congo state then encountering great difficulties with the zanzibar arabs established on the upper congo eb stanley and tippoo tib the chief of the congo arabs entered into an agreement for the latter to assume governorship of the stanley falls station and supply carriers for the emin relief expedition and then travelled up the congo to bangala together they parted ways at stanley falls and stanley started his trip toward albert nyanza leaving a rear guard at yambuya on the lower aruwimi under the command of major e m barttelot stanley s journey to albert nyanza became a hazardous 160 day march through nothing but miles and miles endless miles of forest that claimed the lives of over half of stanley s men from starvation disease and hostility of the natives finally upon the arrival at albert nyanza stanley achieved communication with emin but was troubled by the non arrival of his rear guard he retraced his steps back to yambuya to find that tippoo tib had broken faith barttelot had been murdered and the camp was in disarray and only one european was left stanley again set out for albert nyanza where stanley emin pasha and the survivors of the rear guard began the return journey to zanzibar by way of uganda a trip during which he discovered the mountains of the moon ruwenzori traced the course of the semliki river discovered albert edward nyanza and the great southwestern gulf
