McGraw-Hill Encyclopedia of World Drama 1953 critical reflections on teacher education argues that educational philosophy can improve the quality of teacher education programs in canada the united states and the united kingdom the book documents the ways in which the market model of education propagated by governments and outside agencies hastens the decline of philosophy of education and turns teachers into technicians in hierarchical school systems a grounding in educational philosophy however enables future teachers to make informed and qualified judgements defining their professional lives in a clear and accessible style howard woodhouse uses a combination of reasoned argument and narrative to show that educational philosophy together with indigenous knowledge systems forms the basis of a climate change education capable of educating future teachers and their students about the central issue of our time

The Huntington Library Quarterly 2017-09-19 in eugene o neill s creative struggle doris alexander gives us a new kind of inside biography that begins where the others leave off it follows o neill through the door into his writing room to give a blow by blow account of how he fought out in his plays his great life battles love against hate doubt against belief life against death to an ever expanding understanding it presents a new kind of criticism showing how o neill s most intimate struggles worked their way to resolution through the drama of his plays alexander reveals that he was engineering his own consciousness through his plays and solving his life problems while the tone imagery and richness of the plays all came out of the nexus of memories summoned up by the urgency of the problems he faced in them by the way of o neill this study moves toward a theory of the impulse that sets off a writer s creativity and a theory of how that impulse acts to shape a work not only in a dramatist like o neill but also in the case of writers in other mediums and even of painters and composers the study begins with desire under the elms because that play s plot was consolidated by a dream that opened up the transfixing grief that precipitated the play for o neill and it ends with days without end when he had resolved his major emotional philosophical struggle and created within himself the voice of his final great plays since the analysis brings to bear on the plays all of his conscious decisions ideas theories as well as the life and death struggles motivating them documenting even the final creative changes made during rehearsals this book provides a definitive account of the nine plays analyzed in detail desire under the elms marco millions the great god brown lazarus laughed strange interlude dynamo mourning becomes electra ah wilderness and days without end with additional analysis of plays written before and after

□□□□□□□□□□ 2022-09-28 it appears that literary work possesses eternal temporal validity due to its autonomous aesthetic value whereas criticism provides points of view having temporary and transitory significance despite such claims the vector of methodology in our series of books dealing with the history of english literature relies on viktor shklovsky t s eliot mikhael bakhtin and especially yuri tynyanov whose main reasoning would be that literature is a system of dominant central and peripheral marginalized elements to us tradition centre versus innovation margin engaged in a battle for supremacy demarginalization and the right to form a new literary system and the development or historical advancement of literature is the substitution of systems roman jakobson and french structuralism on the whole later linda hutcheon with her system and constant and bran nicol with the dominant to say nothing about itamar even zohar and his theory of polysystem to a certain extent julia kristeva and even homi bhabha as well as our humble contribution we would like to believe maintain tynyanov s line of thinking and concepts alive which have developed and emerged nowadays more like a kind of neo formalism focusing on literary practice applying critical theory and emerging from within our own teaching experience the books in the present series are theoretical and surveyistic like a monograph whereas their more practical and text oriented aspect should appeal as a student handbook for didactic purposes in which certain literary works belonging to various writers of different trends movements and periods are analysed and compared with regard to their source form thematic arrangements ideas motifs character representation strategies intertextual perspectives structural or narrative techniques and other aspects
