nursing report many healthcare professionals that i ve encountered refer to a patient s cancer journey indeed i had an article published describing a patient s journey through biological therapy this particular case history described my involvement with a medical doctor s experience of renal cell carcinoma and self administration of immunotherapy he was very keen to share his experience to educate and inform other health professionals and i now find myself in a similar situation i have journeyed from nurse to patient when diagnosed with grade 3 breast cancer of course i ve experienced various health problems before this time but i never spent a night in hospital unlike members of my family who have experienced serious illness and hospitalisation on several occasions consequently i ve always regarded myself in the caring role amongst family members and over the years i ve used my nursing knowledge and skills to help them deal with both the physical and psychological issues of their various disease processes however being diagnosed with breast cancer has now changed me from nurse and carer into a vulnerable ill person with doubts and fears for my future to restore some sense of purpose while on sick leave and help me to get through each treatment stage i decided to keep a daily journal of my experience get quick access to the most important information surrounding cancer and Core Curriculum for Oncology Nursing 1987 oncology nurse christine magnus moore stood by the bedside of cancer patients for many years caring for them as they endured major surgeries chemotherapy and even the aftermath of grueling bone marrow transplants they fought a battle with an enemy in their bodies cancer some triumphed and some did not fighting for her patients health she thought of herself as a soldier on the battlefield and was amazed at how they dealt with their difficult road and that they often thanked her with a smile as connected as she felt to her patients she didn't fully comprehend the courage it took to confront cancer every day until she became one of them christine navigates the rough road involved with cancer treatment experiencing exhaustion beyond belief debilitating nausea and pain and other side effects which are overwhelmingly more difficult than she'd ever imagined her road is arduous and humbling and she is taxed to her core in every way emotionally physically mentally and spiritually living on the other side of the bedside she feels vulnerable when some of the doctors and nurses she's worked with become her caregivers on top of all that her love life begins to present challenges as well christine emerges a cancer survivor and gains a profound understanding of the suffering her patients had weathered discovering that her life has been re calibrated she embraces her higher purpose with an amplified vigor and empathy to help others dealing with the disease through the darkest of times she finds the deepest grief and tears can produce the greatest strength and passion
