Law, Immunization and the Right to Die

2016-03-10

law immunization and the right to die focuses on the urgent matter of legal appeals and judicial decisions on assisted death drawing on key cases from the united kingdom and canada the book focuses on the problematic paternalism of legal decisions that currently deny assisted dying and questions why the law fails to recognize what many describe as compassionate motives for assisted death when cases are analyzed as discourses that are part of a larger socio political logic of governance judicial decisions it is argued here reveal themselves as relying on the construction of neoliberal fictions fictions that are here elucidated with reference to michel foucault's theoretical insights on pastoral power and roberto esposito's philosophical thesis on immunization challenging the socio political logic of neoliberalism the issue of assisted dying goes beyond the predominant legal concern with protecting or immunizing individuals from one another in favor of minimal interference this book calls for a new kind of politics one that might affirm people and their finitude both more collectively and more compassionately what does god think of us when we fail does he think you re a loser there s no hope for you what a wimp you re good for nothing or does he think something very different if you ve ever lost a job or a relationship let your friends down seen your finances collapse found your ministry crumbling or failed to meet your own ethical standards you might wonder if recovery is possible perhaps you ve wondered if you can ever repair the damage done to others to yourself and to your relationship with god steve roy has good news for you he had to face his own failures but his failures also drove him deep into what god thinks about us and success especially in christian ministry he searched deeply in scripture and listened carefully to the stories of others he found that god s view of success is very different from ours and that a biblically grounded view of success and failure challenges our preconceived notions but leads to hopeful renewal that goes beyond what we often ask or think open minded bible student and trust what the bible teaches but remember that time is short what the bible has taught me i see as both vital and urgent for our eternal salvation yet i know of no church or individual theologian who teaches what this book deals with in any substantive way be prepared for major challenges to your understanding just as god has challenged me in the epistles paul refers to two israels whom he calls israel after the flesh i cor 10 18 and the israel of god gal 6 16 i focus mainly on the latter but i also explain an unexpected but critically important connection between them dependent on the teaching nearly all christian denominations either teach nothing at all on it or almost the opposite of what scripture repeatedly showed me looking back i find this absolutely staggering very few christians understand that the new covenant also only applies to israel as i will clearly show i no longer believe that the nt new testament can be fully understood without this extra israel dimension had i felt i could deliver this in a more light hearted way i would have done so but its implications are too awesome and fundamental to our eternal life prospects for that all things to all people is an introverted narrative penned by the son of a gospel preacher and his alter ego begees mcfree this playfully written autobiography of a simple quiet and peaceable man guides the reader through depression induced insomniac confessions looking deep into the often hidden places of the heart and mind these confessions freed the writer from lies and misunderstandings that had been buried deep within all things to all people shares the spiritual struggle of a man after a divorce broke apart his life and separated him from his children begees uses freewriting to disentangle his poor choices from his good intentions gaining more selfcontrol and growing closer to god while strenuously pushing unbelief out of his mind
