Women in the Horror Films of Vincent Price

2014-01-10

many of the key films in the career of horror icon vincent price 1911 1993 contain commentaries both obvious and subtle on the role of women not only in the context of the times in which the films were created but also during the historical periods depicted in the storylines this examination of price s horror films focuses on how the principal female characters portrayed by such notable actresses as barbara steele hazel court and diana rigg to name but a few are simultaneously villains victims and objects of veneration also considered are issues of gender and sexuality as addressed in vincent price s most memorable movies included are dozens of rare production stills and a selected filmography that provides significant background information on the films cited

School Library Journal

first published in 1988 this book contains entries on famous american humorists humor has been present in american literature from the beginning and has developed characteristics that reflect the american character both regional and national although american literature was in the past treated as inferior to british literature there has always been a large popular audience for the genre which this book shows the figures with entries in this encyclopedia not only amuse in their writing but also aim to enlighten setting out to expose the foibles and foolishness of society and the individuals who compose it it is the manner in which these authors try to accomplish this end that determines whether they appear in the volume indeed the book will demonstrate that the best humor has at its base a ready understanding of human nature
