this must have book will help teachers learn to implement improved equity focused grading for impact zaretta hammond author of culturally responsive teaching the brain crack open the grading conversation here at last and none too soon is a resource that delivers the research base tools and courage to tackle one of the most challenging and emotionally charged conversations in today s schools our inconsistent grading practices and the ways they can inadvertently perpetuate the achievement and opportunity gaps among our students with grading for equity joe feldman cuts to the core of the conversation revealing how grading practices that are accurate bias resistant and motivational will improve learning minimize grade inflation reduce failure rates and become a lever for creating stronger teacher student relationships and more caring classrooms essential reading for schoolwide and individual book study or for student advocates grading for equity provides a critical historical backdrop describing how our inherited system of grading was originally set up as a sorting mechanism to provide or deny opportunity control students and endorse a fixed mindset about students academic potential practices that are still in place a century later a summary of the research on motivation and equitable teaching and learning establishing a rock solid foundation and a true north orientation toward equitable grading practices specific grading practices that are more equitable along with teacher examples strategies to solve common hiccups and concerns and evidence of effectiveness reflection tools for facilitating individual or group engagement and understanding as joe writes grading practices are a mirror not just for students but for us as their teachers each one of us should start by asking what do my grading practices say about who i am and what i believe then let s make the choice to do things differently with grading for equity as a dog eared reference this resource provides the answers to math assignments that kindergarten through 5th grade students complete in 70 times 7 math classwork homework which is sold separately and supplements the textbook 70 times 7 math an all in one math book for grades kindergarten through 5th the assignments are meant to provide students individual practice solving problems taught in their textbooks and to equip them to do well on the corresponding tests there are four classwork assignments to help prepare students for each exam both paper and computer based tests are available and can be purchased from the habakkuk educational materials website at habakkuk net the classwork homework assignments that this book provides the answers to can also be purchased from the website each week s classwork will be in the same format as the test if there are let s say 100 problems on an upcoming test students in grades 3rd through 5th would complete all 100 of those types of problems each week for four weeks although the answers to corresponding problems will differ from one week to the next questions included on the classwork and tests are not randomly selected from the chapters in focus instead they are very comprehensive in that every type of problem students learn about in their textbook or complete as a class on the interactive whiteboard will also be solved individually by students on the classwork assignments and corresponding tests moreover page numbers where students can turn to for help in their textbooks are specified at the beginning of the assignments and in the case of the assignments exclusively for grades 3rd through 5th beside the individual problems tutorial videos are available in the electronic textbooks the classwork is graded by the teacher and the number of problems missed on each page can be recorded at the bottom 0 3 etc it is recommended that students be allowed to correct any problems with checkmarks before the final grade for the assignment is determined correcting errors from the classwork tends to help students to do better on the tests time should be allotted daily for students to work on the assignments to contact habakkuk educational
