The Ruskin Bond Children's Omnibus

Ruskin Bond has won the hearts of millions of readers with his countless charming short stories and introspective novels from biographical tales about acting as a grandfather to children to tales of unrequited love the cross cultural dimensions of Indian society and the power and beauty of nature Bond's more than forty novels and short story collections have made him an internationally acclaimed author. In Ruskin Bond's World Indian scholar Gulnaz Fatma PhD sheds light on one of her country's greatest and most beloved storytellers tracing the influences in his stories from a childhood in colonial India through his time spent in Britain and his life today among India's hills and mountains she explores the biographical as well as the imaginary elements of his fiction and explores in detail the themes of nature children love and animals in his novels and short stories throughout these pages is revealed Bond's love for humanity in all its variety from honorable rogues to proud beggars heartbroken lovers and wise old men and women. Gulnaz has successfully traced major themes in Bond's prolific work under the lenses of her careful examination proving he is the product of his environment a sincere study of Ruskin Bond. Stephen Gill PhD author and poet laureate of Ansted University. I welcome this long overdue study of one of India's literary shining lights. Ruskin Bond's World opens the door to a deeper understanding of one author's imagination and deepest wisdom. Tyler R Tichelaar PhD and award winning author of The Gothic Wanderer. the shadow lines is a highly innovative complex and celebrated novel of amitav ghosh

published in 1988 it received the prestigious sahitya academy award in the following year not only literary critics but also some noted litterateurs have acclaimed it for what it has been able to achieve as a work of art its focus is a fact of history the post partition scenario of violence but its overall form is a subtle interweaving of fact fiction and reminiscence it is a novel in which amitav ghosh has been able to realise his artistic conception through an art form which is cohesive however it remains somewhat inaccessible to some readers they are particularly mystified by its non linear mode this volume of critical essays on the shadow lines is being presented in the hope that it will enable the reader to gain an insight into the meaning and structure of the novel in the first part of the book the contributors bring out the various aspects elements of the novel the second part has essays which look at the novel from some current critical perspectives feminist post colonial and historicist but the emphasis of these essays is upon practice and not theory the idea is that the reader learns about a specific approach by seeing it applied to the the shadow lines the third part has a single but significant essay the shadow lines in context which relates the novel to ghosh s other works both fiction and non fiction though the book is primarily addressed to the student it is hoped that it will interest the common discernible reader as well
