The Aesthetics of Taste: Eating within the Realm of Art 2023-02-17 when does eating become art the aesthetics of taste answers this question by exploring the position of taste in contemporary culture and the manner in which taste meanders its way into the realm of art the argument identifies aesthetic values not only in artistic practices where they are naturally expected but also in the spaces of everydayness that seem far removed from the domain of fine arts as such it seeks to grasp what artists who offer aesthetic as well as culinary experiences actually try to communicate while also pondering whether a cook can be an artist

2016-01-25

Heroines and Heroes: Symbolism, Embodiment, Narratives & Identity 2008 master prose stylist julian barnes presents a collection of stories whose characters are growing old and facing the end of their lives some with bitterness some with resignation and others with raging defiance life is just a premature reaction to death was what viv s husband used to say once her lover and friend he is now viv s semi helpless charge who is daily sinking ever deeper into dementia in appetite viv has found a way to reach her husband by reading aloud snippets of recipe books until he calls out indelible and sometimes unfortunate scenes locked away in his brain in the things you know two elderly friends enjoy their monthly breakfast meetings that neither would ever think of missing of course all they really have in common is a fondness for flat suede shoes and a propensity for thinking spiteful unspoken thoughts about one another's dead husbands the fruit cage is narrated by a middle aged man whose seemingly orderly upbringing is harrowingly undone when he discovers that his parents old age is not necessarily a time of serenity but actually an age of aroused perhaps violent passions in these stories julian barnes displays the erudition wit and uncanny insight into the human mind that mark him as one of today's great writers one whose intellect and humour never obscure a genuine affection for his characters

The Lemon Table 2004

2010-05 a classical music aficionado and concert goer bemoans the degradation of civility and respect among his fellow audience members he develops a series of measures to counteract the prevalence of inconsiderate noise making in the stalls resisting his erstwhile partner's appeals for moderation and restraint his tactics and approaches grow in extremity part of the storycuts series this short story was previously published in the collection the lemon table

Vigilance (Storycuts) 2011-11-17 the bestselling booker prize winning author of the sense of an ending trains his laser bright prose on the collapse of communism in eastern europe stoyu petkanov the deposed party leader is placed on trial for crimes that range from corruption to political murder petkanov's guilt and the righteousness of his opponents would seem to be self evident but as brilliantly imagined by barnes the trial of this cunning and unrepentant dictator illuminates the shadowy frontier between the rusted myths of the communist past and a capitalist future in which everything is up for grabs

The Porcupine 2011-06-15 a kind of detective story relating a cranky amateur scholar's search for the truth about gustave flaubert and the obsession of this detective whose life seems to oddly mirror those of flaubert's characters

Flaubert's Parrot 1985 how we eat farm and shop for food is not only a matter of taste our choices regarding what we eat involve every essential aspect of our human nature the animal the sensuous the social the cultural the creative the emotional and the intellectual thinking seriously about food requires us to consider our relationship to nature to our fellow animals to each other and to ourselves so can thinking about food teach us about being virtuous and can what we eat help us to decide how to live from the author of the ego trick and the pig that wants to be eaten comes a thought provoking exploration of our values and vices what can fasting teach us about autonomy should we like kant dare to know cheese should we take media advice on salt with a pinch of salt and can food be more virtuous more inherently good than art
