What Men Want to Say to Women (But Can't)

2020-02-11

no matter one s political persuasion most of us agree there

s something deeply wrong in america today conflict has reached a fever pitch as our nation has become alarmingly polarized in the political arena many look to politicians and public policies for solutions but journalist andrew Breitbart rightly said that politics couldn't be fixed if culture is ignored because politics is downstream from culture McAllister would take this observation a step further politics might be downstream from culture but culture is downstream from relationships if we don't focus on the personal building blocks of society we will fail to fix problems in culture and the politics that flow from it if relationships are sick or broken especially those between men and women then everything else is affected if there's little love respect and trust there you won't find it anywhere else men are tired of being dumped on they have a lot to say to women about sex equality in the workplace raising boys and the lie of toxic masculinity but modern feminism and a politically correct culture have silenced them this war on men has disrupted relationships and caused men to question their place in American society misogyny male privilege and the patriarchy are buzzwords that shut men down some are so frustrated they've given up entirely who needs women if all they're going to do is use you and treat you like garbage anger separation and simply giving up aren't solutions to a festering problem instead we need to heal relationships by learning to respect the designed purposes of masculinity and femininity for this to happen women will need to hear some hard truths about themselves and those they love in what men want to say to women but can't cultural commentator and New York Times bestselling author Denise McAllister speaks to women on men's behalf exposing the lies of modern feminism and offering insights on how to rebuild broken relationships in the workplace at home and in the bedroom here s a sneak peek at a few things men would like to say to women but can t when i look at your cleavage it doesn t mean i want to rape you stop complaining about equal pay when you don t do equal work children need their father stop shutting men out of the picture because you think you do everything better i will teach my son to compete now go toss that participation trophy in the trash a triumph of compassion insight and good sense denise mcallister doesn t just want to fix how men and women talk to each other she wants to heal a fraying holy sacrament read this book to save your marriage or to find one milo yiannopoulos

in reading for pleasure kenny pieper has gathered a range of tried and tested strategies to get kids reading and enjoying it we hear too often that kids don t read any more kenny thinks it should be every teacher s mission to prove this isn t true in a squeezed curriculum it can be tempting to accept pupils lack of reading and make excuses that there is not enough time to give to the luxury of personal reading teachers do this at our peril reading is the essential building block of further literacy development as well as a skill hobby and habit that we can take with us forever kenny pieper takes the act of reading for granted as many but sadly not all adults do you re reading this right now however this isn t the case for everyone kenny teaches kids whose lives are terrifying obstacle courses of reading related problems they know they struggle with reading so they try to avoid reading at all costs they leave school not merely unaffected by this strange reading thing but saddled with a great deal of emotional baggage about being an outsider even more entrenched in a belief that reading is for others more intelligent than them then there are the children who can read perfectly well but chose not to unconvinced of the importance of reading in their lives what difference does it make to them we have to answer that question in school we have a duty to put an end to illiteracy and aliteracy kids need reading role models and as a teacher that role model is you you may be the only adult who that reluctant reader will ever see reading teachers are critical in giving all children the gift of being able to read well and to value reading topics covered include the author s personal reading journey how reading enabled him to become the first person in his family to go to university and convinced him that fostering a love of reading is his moral duty as an educator illiteracy and aliteracy reluctant readers book reviews prioritising personal reading by devoting ten minutes each lesson to it habitual reading the reading environment interest inventories technology e readers accelerated reader programmes recommended reading building a class library bookmarks book tweets book speed dating libraries librarians literacy and class inequality parental involvement podcasting reading records reading dialogue journals the rights of the reader reading aloud silent reading and literacy and gender amongst others the benefits we can all reap when kids become confident readers who read for pleasure are obvious discover strategies which will get kids talking about books get them thinking about books get them reading books encourage independent reading develop literacy skills and establish a classroom culture where reading is expected and celebrated suitable for primary and secondary teachers leaders and sencos or just anyone with an interest in or
