xie analyzes three novels by the international award winning chinese writer yan lianke and investigates how his signature mythorealist form produces textual meanings that subvert the totalizing reality prescribed by literary realism the term mythorealism which yan coined to describe his own writing style refers to a set of literary devices that incorporate both chinese and western literary elements while remaining primarily grounded in chinese folk culture and literary tradition in his use of mythorealism carrying a burden of social critique that cannot allow itself to become political yan transcends the temporality and provinciality of immediate social events and transforms his potential socio political commentaries into more diversified concerns for humanity existential issues and spiritual crisis xie identifies three modes of mythorealist narrative exemplified in yan s three novels the minjian folk mode in dream of ding village the allusive mode in ballad hymn ode and the enigmatic mode in the four books by positioning itself against an ambiguous articulation of social determinants of historical events that would perhaps be more straightforward in a purely realist text each mode of mythorealism moves its narrative from the overt politicality of the subject matter to the existential riddle of negotiating an alternative reality a groundbreaking study of one of contemporary china s most important authors that will be of great value to scholars and students of chinese literature
