aesthetic apprehensions silences and absences in false familiarities is a scholarly conversation about encounters between habitual customs of reading and seeing and their ruptures and ossifications in closely connected discourses the thirteen essays collected here set out to carefully probe the ways our aesthetic immersions are obfuscated by deep seated epistemological and ideological apprehensions by focusing on how the tropology carried by silence absence and false familiarity crystallize to define the gaps that open up as they figure in the subtitle of this volume the tropes may seem straightforward enough but a closer examination of their function in relation to social cultural and political assumptions and gestalts reveal troubling oversights aesthetic apprehensions comes to name the attempt at capturing the outlier meanings residing in habituated receptions as well as the uneasy relations that result from aesthetic practices already in place emphasizing the kinds of thresholds of sense and sensation which occasion rupture and creativity such after all is the promise of the threshold of the liminal to encourage our leap into otherness for then to find ourselves and our sensing again and anew in novel comprehensions
