a rich and lovely exploration of art history from one of the world's most renowned art critics and author of ways of seeing slate a diverse cast of artists comes to life in this jargon free study zadie smith hails as among the greatest books on art i've ever read one of the world's most celebrated art writers takes us through centuries of drawing and painting revealing his lifelong fascination with a diverse cast of artists berger grounds the artists in their historical milieu in revolutionary ways whether enlarging on the prehistoric paintings of the Chauvet caves or cy twombly's linguistic and pictorial play in penetrating and singular prose berger presents entirely new ways of thinking about artists both canonized and obscure from Rembrandt to Henry Moore Jackson Pollock to Picasso throughout berger maintains the essential connection between politics art and the wider study of culture the result is an illuminating walk through many centuries of visual culture featuring 100 black and white images from one of the contemporary world's most incisive critical voices a wonderful artist and thinker Susan Sontag

The Art of Seeing Things 2001

essential reading n 1 creative and political art criticism on landscape works from the renaissance to the present from a master storyteller Arundhati Roy author of The God of Small Things in this brilliant collection of diverse pieces essays short stories poems translations which spans a lifetime's engagement with art John Berger reveals how he came to his own unique way of seeing he pays homage to the writers and thinkers who influenced him such as Walter Benjamin Rosa Luxemburg and Bertolt Brecht his expansive perspective takes in artistic movements and individual artists from the renaissance to the present while never neglecting the social and political context of their creation berger pushes at the limits of art writing demonstrating beautifully how his artist's eye makes him a storyteller in these essays rather than a critic with landscape as an animating liberating metaphor rather than a rigid definition this collection surveys the aesthetic landscapes that have informed challenged and nourished John Berger's understanding of the world landscapes alongside its companion portraits completes a tour through the history of art that will be an intellectual benchmark for many years to come

Permanent Red 1979

compelling and intimate this collection of never before seen letters between the celebrated art critic and essayist John Berger and his son Yves an artist is a moving look at their musings on art memory life death and beyond written between 2015-16 with 53 color images of well known old masters and contemporary art as well as some of the Bergers own drawings and watercolors over to you is an informal back and forth not unlike the ping pong games father and son used to play in the barn of their house it begins when John who is in a Parisian suburb sends Yves who is in Haute Savoie an envelope of reproductions of art that have moved him and so they begin to reveal their thoughts looking at a Goya Watteau Twombly Joan Mitchell Durer Caravaggio Manet and Euan Uglow among many others but the art is just a way to summon shared emotions and memories as well as deepen their understanding of the world and its mysteries John at 89 is the more formal teacher Yves at 39 comes across as the younger philosophical artist there are John's thoughts on the use of color light and space in say a Dürer or a Beckmann to the question of staying fully alive or Yves noting how much in life exceeds our understanding the gap between our consciousness and our feeling between the said and the unsaid that's the zone where I would like us to meet are you coming he asks his father I may need other eyes to confirm what is really there like your eyes always did this is an exceptional and moving tribute to a relationship between a father and son and between two artists as well as a thought provoking look at questions we all have about work time the universe life and death

SEEING THROUGH DRAWING 2017

john berger's writings on photography are some of the most original of the twentieth century this selection contains many groundbreaking essays and previously uncollected pieces written for exhibitions and catalogues in which berger probes the work of photographers such as henri cartier bresson and w eugene smith and the lives of those photographed with fierce engagement intensity and tenderness the selection is made and introduced by geoff dyer author of the award winning the ongoing moment how do we see the world around us this is one of a number of pivotal works by creative thinkers whose writings on art design and the media have changed our vision for ever john berger was born in london in 1926 his acclaimed works of both fiction and non fiction include the seminal ways of seeing and the novel g which won the booker prize in 1972 in 1962 he left britain permanently and he now lives in a small village in the french alps geoff dyer is the author of four novels and several non fiction books winner of the lannan literary award the international centre of photography's 2006 infinity award and the american academy of arts and letters's em forster award dyer is also a regular contributor to many publications in the uk and the us he lives in london

Portraits 2021-12-07

in one of the most eloquent accounts of photography ever devised originally published in 1982 and unavailable for many years the writer john berger and the photographer jean mohr set out to understand the fundamental nature of photography and how it makes its impact asking a range of questions what is a photograph what do photographs mean how can they be used they give their answers in terms of a photograph as a meeting place where the interests of the photographer the photographed the viewer and those who are using the photography are often contradictory from these beginnings they develop a theory of photography that has at its centre the form's essential ambiguity arguing that photography is totally unlike a film and has nothing to do with reportage rather it constitutes another way of telling the unique combination of critic and photographer results in a work that moves beyond the landmarks established by walter benjamin roland barthes and susan sontag to establish a new theory of photography this unique combination of words and pictures includes 230 photographs by jean mohr

Landscapes 2018-11-06

in this incisive counter polemic peter fuller underlines what is most valuable in berger's criticism while attacking the art ideologists who would negate the existence of any aesthetic experience he succinctly argues the case for a materialistic understanding of art and its value which moves beyond ideology and permits one to confront the masterpiece the work of art which breaks free from the norms of tradition and transcends its time back cover
