collated it with the other best known ones marco polo almost the first european man to reach the wonderful world of east asia the travels of marco polo is a 13th century travelogue written down by rustichello da pisa from stories told by marco polo when they where emprisoned together in genoa describing polo s travels through asia persia china and indonesia between 1276 and 1291 and his experiences became at the court of the mongol leader kublai khan excerpt from the story of marco polo the story of marco polo and his companions is one of the most romantic and interesting of mediæval or of modern times the manner of the return of the polos long after they had been given up for dead the subsequent adventures of marco polo the incredulity with which his book of travels was received the gradual and slow confirmation of the truth of his reports as later explorations penetrated the mysterious orient and the fact that he may be justly regarded as the founder of the geography of asia have all combined to give to his narrative a certain fascination with which no other story of travel has been invested at first read for pure amusement marco polo s book eventually became an authoritative account of regions of the earth which were almost wholly unknown to europe up to his time and some portions of which even now remain unexplored by western travellers about the publisher description of the world in italian il milione the million or oriente poliano and in english commonly called the travels of marco polo is a 13th century travelogue written down by rustichello da pisa from stories told by marco polo describing polo s travels through asia between 1276 and 1291 and his experiences at the court of kublai khan the book was written in old french by romance writer rustichello da pisa who worked from accounts which he had heard from marco polo when they were imprisoned together in genoa from the beginning there has been incredulity over polo s sometimes fabulous stories as well as a scholarly debate in recent times some have questioned whether marco had actually traveled to china or was just repeating stories that he had heard from other travelers this book tells about marco polo s travels the people places and sights he saw and what was happening elsewhere in the world at that time excerpt from the story of marco polo in this little book the author and compiler has endeavoured to give a connected account of the travels of marco polo for the entertainment and instruction of young readers with the hope that maturer minds may find therein a comprehensive and intelligible summary of the most valuable and trustworthy parts of the said book as far as possible he has allowed the traveller to speak for himself refraining from that fashion of condensation which suppresses the original author and gives the reader only a narration which has been coloured by its passage through the mind of an editor in his comments on the text of marco polo the author has made use of the erudite notes of colonel henry yule c b whose admirable translation of the book of ser marco polo the venetian john murray london 1871 has been about the publisher historical works marco polo the first european to travel to china and return to write about his adventures was born in venice in 1254 marco s father had left on a journey to asia before the boy was born marco did not see his father and uncle niccolo and maffeo polo until fifteen years later in 1271 the three polos left venice and headed for the court of kublai khan in eastern china the journey took them more than three years they arrived in 1275 marco polo became a favorite of the great khan and was sent on important missions all over the mongol empire marco and his father and uncle served kublai khan for 17 years when they returned to venice in 1295 marco became the captain of a merchant ship and was captured and imprisoned in genoa while in prison he and another prisoner who was a writer of romances wrote the story of marco polo s adventures the travels of marco polo volume i from marco polo italian merchant traveller from venice 1254 1324 marco polo almost the first european man to reach the wonderful world of east asia the travels of marco polo is a 13th century travelogue written down by rustichello da pisa from stories told by marco polo when they were imprisoned together in genoa describing polo s travels through asia persia china and indonesia between 1276 and 1291 and his experiences became at the court of the mongol leader kublai khan marco polo was 17 the first time he saw his father soon after he joined his father and uncle on a trip from marco s hometown of venice italy to china in the 1200s that journey took several years and the three travelers faced many hazards once he arrived marco impressed the country s powerful leader kublai khan enough to become an ambassador and governor he spent years crisscrossing china then known as cathay in the khan s service he finally returned home but a few years later he was imprisoned during a conflict between venice and genoa during his imprisonment he wrote a book that described places and sights few europeans knew even existed and changed their view of the world forever marco polo was twenty when he reached china in 1274 he spent another seventeen years living and working directly for kublai khan genghis khan s grandson and the first emperor of the yuan dynasty it was customary for senior imperial officials to live in households with several wives was marco polo any different or was he living in celibacy while in china after the battle of hattin where salahadin the sultan of syria defeated the christian army he conquered jerusalem many treasures from jerusalem were sent to the ruler of islam caliph of baghdad where they were placed in the famous treasure tower there is no surprise that kublai khan enjoyed the company of christians his mother sorkaktani was a christian she had a profound influence on her four sons career within mongol elites especially on kublai and hulagu kublai conquered and united china and was elected the great khan of the mongol empire while hulagu conquered persia and the islamic caliphate with its capital baghdad what happened to the treasures of baghdad after the city was conquered by the mongols this is the quest that alex and nicole philipson embark on when they come to the possession of an old chinese parchment written in latin they think the riddles in the parchment will lead them to genghis khan s tomb in fact it will lead them to unexpected and astonishing discoveries rustichello da pisa was an italian romance writer best known for cowriting marco polo s autobiography while they were in prison together in genoa marco polo september 15 1254 january 8 9 1324 was a venetian merchant traveller whose travels are recorded in livres des merveilles du monde book of the marvels of the world also known as the travels of marco polo c 1300 a book that introduced europeans to central asia and china
