to 1833 the works of american author edgar allan poe january 19 1809 october 7 1849 include many poems short stories and one novel his fiction spans multiple genres including horror fiction adventure science fiction and detective fiction a genre he is credited with inventing these works are generally considered part of the dark romanticism movement a literary reaction to transcendentalism an unnamed narrator approaches the house of usher on a dull dark and soundless day this house the estate of his boyhood friend roderick usher is gloomy and mysterious the narrator observes that the house seems to have absorbed an evil and diseased atmosphere from the decaying trees and murky ponds around it he notes that although the house is decaying in places individual stones are disintegrating for example the structure itself is fairly solid there is only a small crack from the roof to the ground in the front of the building he has come to the house because his friend roderick sent him a letter earnestly requesting his company roderick wrote that he was feeling physically and emotionally ill so the narrator is rushing to his assistance the narrator mentions that the usher family though an ancient clan has never flourished only one member of the usher family has survived from generation to generation thereby forming a direct line of descent without any outside branches the usher family has become so identified with its estate that the peasantry confuses the inhabitants with their home in this collection are edgar allen poe masterpieces of mystery horror and adventure including stories such as the fall of the house of usher the tell tale heart the cask of amontillado the black cat the masque of the red death the murders in the rue morgue the gold bug and the pit and the
