length memoirs of auschwitz published in english more than 670 000 middle school teachers grades 6 8 are responsible for educating nearly 13 million students in public and private schools thousands more teachers join these ranks annually especially in the south and west where ethnic populations are ballooning teachers and administrators seek practical time efficient ways of teaching language arts to 21st century adolescents in increasingly multicultural technologically diverse socially networked communities they seek sound understanding practical advice and proven strategies in order to connect diverse literature to 21st century societies while meeting state and professional standards like the common core state standards for english language arts this book offers strategies and resources that work the common core state standards have put close reading in the spotlight as never before while middle and high school teachers want and need students to connect with analyze and learn from both literary and informational texts many are unsure how to foster the skills students must have in order to develop deep and nuanced understanding of complicated content is there a process to follow how is close reading different from shared reading and other common literacy practices how do you prepare students to have their ability to analyze complex texts measured by high stakes assessments and how do you fit close reading instruction and experiences into an already crowded curriculum literacy experts barbara moss diane lapp maria grant and kelly johnson answer these questions and more as they explain how to teach middle and high school students to be close readers how to make close reading a habit of practice across the content areas and why doing so will build content knowledge informed by the authors extensive field experience and enriched by dozens of real life scenarios and downloadable tools and templates this book explores text complexity and how to determine if a particular text is right for your learning purposes and your students the process and purpose of close reading with an emphasis on its role in developing the 21st century thinking speaking and writing skills essential for academic communication and college and career readiness how to plan teach and manage close reading sessions across the academic disciplines including the kinds of questions to ask texts to use and supports to provide how to assess close reading and help all students regardless of linguistic cultural or academic background connect deeply with what they read and derive meaning from complex texts equipping students with the tools and process of close reading sets them on the road to becoming analytical and critical thinkers and empowered and independent learners in this comprehensive resource you ll find everything you need to start their journey a guide to reading the diary of anne frank that includes sections on themes symbolism plot setting characters and more in this book dr timothy horan presents an original and highly effective writing program whose major goal is to transform middle school students into competent and confident writers this writing program is innovative rigorous and engaging and was designed with the student in mind this book contains a total of twenty original writing assignments ten for seventh grade and another ten for eighth grade these assignments are based on middle school students natural predilections and developmental levels and represent creative interpretations of the common core writing standards each writing project in this book is full and complete and is described with clarity and simplicity each assignment also includes a reproducible outline that presents the assignment to students in a simplified graphical format the pedagogical philosophy underlying this program is simple and effective it seeks to provide students with enjoyable writing assignments that students will understand learn from and complete as students progress through the program they will develop an upbeat emotional bond with the act of writing and will learn to approach composition with a sense of optimism and confidence a dramatization of the diary of anne frank recording the experiences of a young jewish girl who hid from the nazis for two years before being sent to a concentration camp the introduction notes and assignments provide support in tackling the characters themes and action of the play functional literacy cultural literacy and progressive literacy are just a few of the many terms one can invoke when attempting to define literacy from a critical perspective for a democratic society to exist a critical literacy is of crucial importance critical literacy aims to empower individuals and transform society it is grounded in critical theory and like critical pedagogy investigates ways in which social cultural racial sexual and economic inequalities are reproduced by investigating the ideological political and social structures that perpetuate such inequalities it hopes to raise consciousness and move towards creating a more socially just society this book examines the approaches set forth by atwell calkins and rief in their books in the middle 1998 the art of teaching writing 1994 and seeking diversity 1992 respectively this book is of relevance to teacher educators and english language arts teachers it enables one to become familiar with the main components of the readers writers workshop and develop an awareness of how literacy may be conceptualized and reconceptualized through this approach teacher educators will find this text useful for raising preservice teachers awareness of the ideologies that inform literacy education and in developing their understanding for how students are positioned socially culturally politically and economically by such ideologies english language arts teachers will find this book informative in understanding how they can be positioned by teacher texts to teach towards certain ideologies of literacy finally it allows teacher educators and english language arts teachers to consider what kind of literacy education is provided for through the readers writers workshop and whether space may be negotiated within the readers writers workshop for the teaching of critical literacy
